

Rain fury: CM assures best possible compensation to farmers after field visit

Plane bursts into flames while landing in South Korea, killing 179

Nayagarh, Dec 29(KCN): Odisha Chief Minister Mohan Majhi on Sunday assured the best possible aid to the rain hit farmers after his field visit.

Following his spot assessments in the Nayagarh district Majhi interacted with the affected farmers and became compassionate to their sufferings for immense loss of paddy crops due to the recent rains that lashed incessantly across the state. Odisha Assembly Speaker Surama Padhy also accompanied the Chief Minister.

Majhi discussed the matter with the district administration to conduct a sincere survey on the crop losses and report to the government at the earliest.

Worth mentioning, CM Mohan Majhi is also scheduled to undertake spot visits to Ganjam and Gajapati districts to assess the devastation caused by unseasonal rains in paddy fields and other standing crops on the following days.

Seoul(KCN): A passenger plane skidded off a runway at a South Korean airport Sunday, slammed into a concrete fence and burst into flames after its front landing gear apparently failed to deploy. All but two of the 181 people on board died in one of the country's worst aviation disasters.

Footage of the crash aired by South Korean television channels showed the plane skidding across the airstrip at high speed, apparently with its landing gear still closed, overrunning the runway and colliding head-on with a concrete wall on the outskirts of the facility, triggering an explosion. Other local TV stations aired footage showing thick plumes of black smoke billowing from the plane, which was engulfed in flames.

Thailand's prime minister, Paetongtarn Shinawatra, expressed deep condolences to the families of those affected by the accident in a post on social platform X. Paetongtarn said she ordered the Ministry of Foreign Affairs to provide assistance immediately.

Kerati Kijmanawat, the director of Airports of Thailand, confirmed in a statement that Jeju Air flight 7C 2216 departed from Suvarnabhumi Airport with no reports of abnormal conditions with the aircraft or on the runway.

Jeju Air in a statement expressed its "deep apology" over the crash and said it will do its "utmost to manage the aftermath of the accident."

In a televised news conference, Kim E-bae, Jeju Air's president, bowed deeply with other senior company officials as he apologized to bereaved families and said he feels "full responsibility" for the incident. Kim said the company hadn't identified any mechanical problems with the aircraft following regular checkups and that he would wait for the results of government investigations into the cause of the incident.

Cold wave set to return to Odisha today

Bhubaneswar, December 29(KCN): After a brief respite, Odisha is reviving for the return of cold wave conditions from December 30. The regional office of the India Meteorological Department (IMD) in Bhubaneswar has predicted a significant drop in night temperatures, ranging from 2°C to 4°C, due to the influence of cold and dry winds resulting from the westward movement of a western disturbance currently affecting North India. The IMD further noted that the cold spell is expected to intensify in the first week of January. According to the midday bulletin, there will be minimal change in the minimum temperature over the next 24 hours, but it is likely to decline by 2°C to 4°C in the subsequent four days across the state.

In Bhubaneswar and Cuttack, the night temperatures may dip to around 13°C and 14°C, respectively, this week.

Over the past 24 hours, the twin cities recorded temperatures of 16.9°C and 16.5°C, while G Udayagiri emerged as the coldest location in Odisha at 10.8°C. The IMD has also issued a dense fog warning for Sundargarh, Jharsuguda, Kalahandi, and Kandhamal districts until December 30. Shallow to moderate fog is expected in parts of Bargarh, Bolangir, Nuapada, Keonjhar, Mayurbhanj, and Sambalpur. Light rain is also predicted in isolated areas of Bargarh, Jharsuguda, Sundargarh, Keonjhar, Mayurbhanj, Sambalpur, and Deogarh districts during this period.

Residents are advised to prepare for colder nights and reduced visibility due to fog in affected areas.

Congress and BJD slam BJP govt over delay in crop loss assessment; Minister responds Bhubaneswar, December 29(KCN): The Congress and Biju Janata Dal (BJD) have criticized the Odisha government, led by Chief Minister Mohan Charan Majhi, for delaying the assessment of crop losses caused by recent unseasonal rains. Both parties questioned the government's efficiency in disaster management and timely delivery of relief to affected farmers.

The Congress MLA Rama Chandra Kadam accused the administration of ignoring farmers' grievances and failing to address their immediate needs.

Meanwhile, the BJD leader Prasant Muduli emphasized the urgency of swift action to ensure farmers receive the support they deserve.

Responding to the criticism, the Food Supplies and Consumer Affairs Minister Krushna Chandra Patra defended the state government, arguing that thorough assessments take time to gather accurate data for fair compensation. The party assured that necessary steps are being taken to address the farmers' concerns effectively.

Previously, Chief Minister Mohan Charan Majhi reiterated the government's commitment to the farmers, stating, "Every farmer who has faced crop loss during the recent unseasonal rains will be compensated. The process has already been initiated."

Tigress Zeenat tranquilized in West Bengal after straying from Odisha's Simlipal forest

Baripada, Dec 29(KCN): Tigress Zeenat, who had wandered from Odisha's Simlipal forest into Bankura district in West Bengal, was tranquilized on Sunday afternoon in Gopalpur forest, after several attempts earlier in the day to sedate her.

Prakash Chand Gogineni, the Baripada Regional Chief Conservator of Forests (RCCF), confirmed that the tigress is now confined in a cage, and efforts are underway to safely return her to Odisha. "My heartiest congratulations to the forest officials of West Bengal on the successful rescue of the tigress- Zeenat. My sincere gratitude to the district administration, police, panchayat functionaries and the local people for their invaluable support and collaboration in this remarkable effort. This rescue is a shining example of teamwork and dedication toward wild life conservation. Your combined efforts have not only saved a majestic creature that strayed out of its habitat but also reinforced the importance of protecting our natural heritage. Thank you for your outstanding work!" posted West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee on X.

Earlier, West Bengal's Chief Wildlife Warden, Debal Roy, provided an update, stating that the tigress was still located in the same area of Gopalpur forest, where she had been encircled with double netting. The perimeter of the netting was gradually reduced to contain the animal within a smaller, secured area. The tigress was first tranquillized at 1:20 am on Sunday but failed to respond to the sedatives despite multiple doses. Roy explained that the amount of tranquilizer that can be administered to the animal is limited, and after repeated unsuccessful attempts, the operation to sedate her was halted temporarily at 4:30 am.

"The tigress was in an excited state, which made it difficult to sedate her," Roy noted.

Zeenat, who was brought to Simlipal from Maharashtra's

Tadoba-Andhari Tiger Reserve (TATR) last month to contribute to the region's tiger gene pool, had strayed from her designated territory. Having crossed into West Bengal from Simlipal, she has been roaming the forests along the tri-junction of West Bengal, Jharkhand, and Odisha for nearly a week, covering over 120 km in search of new territory.

This is the 'vegetable revolution' of Kalahandi. Where once farmers were forced to migrate; today, Golamunda block of Kalahandi has become a vegetable hub. How did this change come about? It started with a small group of just 10 farmers. This group together established an FPO - 'Kisan Utpad Sangh', started using modern technology in farming, and today their FPO is doing business worth crores. Today more than 200 farmers are associated with this FPO, including 45 women farmers".

vegetables from Kalahandi are reaching not only various districts of Odisha, but also other states, and the farmers there are now learning new techniques of potato and onion cultivation.

I urge all of you to encourage FPO in your area and Join farmer producer organizations and strengthen them. PM said remember - Big changes are possible even through small beginnings. We just need determination and team spirit.

Singh Is Kinng 2 in the works without Akshay Kumar, producer wants Ranveer Singh Producer Shailendra Singh has made it clear that his first choice for Singh Is Kinng 2 is Ranveer Singh, and if things don't materialise with him, he will approach Diljit Dosanjh. Here's more about the project.

Producer Shailendra Singh, who had earlier 'gifted' the title Singh Is Kinng to Akshay Kumar and fellow producer Vipul Amrutlal Shah, is back at planning his passionate project - Singh Is Kinng 2. As per a media report, the producer has made up his mind and the initial work has begun on converting the romantic-comedy into a franchise, with the second part rolling next year. But, to the fans' disappointment, he is not thinking about getting Akshay Kumar back for the second part. A report in Mid-Day quoted Shailendra Singh confirming that it took him 12 years to get the title back, and now that he has finally received it, he doesn't want to delay the production on the film, which could either be titled Singh Is Kinng 2 or Singh Is Kinng Returns. He said the film is expected to be on the floor towards the end of next year. Shailendra said, "I had gifted the title to Akshay Kumar, and they tried to make part two, but I asked them to return the title as I wanted to make a sequel. After 12 years of going back and forth with Vipul and Akshay, I finally got the title three years ago. I have started the process of [making] Singh Is Kinng 2. I will begin production from October 2025 so that I can release it in 2026." The report further mentioned that the producer had initially thought about getting Happy Singh, the protagonist, on a new mission to bring the Koh-i-noor back to India. However, that didn't work out, and now he has decided to change his protagonist altogether.

He explained, "But that didn't get made. Now, I am mounting the second part because it seems to be the era of sequels and remakes. We'll see whether the final name will be Singh Is Kinng 2 or Singh Is Kinng Returns. The hero won't be called Happy Singh. We'll create a new character." In all possibilities, the film is not going to have Akshay on board, who played Happy Singh alongside Katrina Singh in the 2008 hit film. Shailendra Singh revealed that his first choice for the role is Ranveer Singh, who is quirky, energetic and has the qualities that suit the character best. "My first choice is Ranveer Singh. We reached out to his manager on Saturday. His energy, cheekiness and fun fit the character. Also, Ranveer has never played a Sardar before." The actor was reportedly offered the same film in 2017 as well, but things didn't work out at that time. Shailendra insisted that the time is different today and the talks are on with the actor's team. The producer added that his second choice is Diljit Dosanjh.

He shared, "Now the time is right for both Singhs, Ranveer and Shailendra, to create magic. If Ranveer doesn't work out, then Diljit is my next choice," adding that he wants either Priyadarshan or Anees Bazmee to direct the film.

Singh Is Kinng is one of the most successful and celebrated films of Akshay's career. It also featured Sonu Sood, Jaaved Jaaferi, Kirron Kher, the late Om Puri and Ranvir Shorey, among others. It was directed by Anees Bazmee.

The scheme further provides the tax paid under the scheme cannot be refunded under any circumstance. At best, assessee can ask for adjustment of the tax paid with the disputed tax.

41. Where an appeal has been heard before 22nd July 2024, but order has not been pronounced, can assessee opt for the scheme: In case the appeal is pending on 22nd July 2024, the assessee can opt for the scheme.

42. Where assessee has filed an appeal with petition for condonation of delay prior to 22nd July 2024 and the delay has not yet been condoned, can assessee opt for VSV scheme: The following judgment was pronounced by the Supreme Court under KVSS 1998, in the case of CIT v. Shatrusaila Digvijaysingh Jadega [2005] 277 ITR 435 (SC) wherein it has been held that:-

When a section contemplates pendency of an appeal, what is required for its application is that an appeal should be pending and in such a case there is no need to introduce the qualification that it should be valid or competent. Whether an appeal is valid or competent is a question entirely for the appellate court before whom the appeal is filed to decide and this determination is possible only after the appeal is heard but there is nothing to prevent a party from filing an appeal which may ultimately be found to be incompetent, e.g., when it is held to be barred by limitation.

43. Where CIT(A) has dismissed the appeal and time for filing appeal before ITAT has expired before 23rd July 2024 and assessee furnished a belated appeal with condonation of delay after 22nd July 2024 but before 16th August 2024 (before Finance (No. 2) Act, 2024 was passed) can he opt for VSV scheme: The scheme does not specifically provide for the appeals for which due date u/s 249 has expired on or before 23rd July 2024 but appeal is filed after 22nd July 2024 with condonation of delay.

(i) the time limit for filing of appeal u/s 249 of the Income-tax Act, 1961 has got barred by limitation on or before 29.02.2016 (corresponding to 22.07.2024 under the VSV Scheme)

(ii) the appeal with condonation application

When a section contemplates pendency of an appeal, what is required for its application is that an appeal should be pending and in such a case there is no need to introduce the qualification that it should be valid or competent. Whether an appeal is valid or competent is a question entirely for the appellate court before whom the appeal is filed to decide and this determination is possible only after the appeal is heard but there is nothing to prevent a party from filing an appeal which may ultimately be found to be incompetent, e.g., when it is held to be barred by limitation.

44. Where CIT(A) has dismissed the appeal and time for filing appeal before ITAT has expired before 23rd July 2024 and assessee furnished a belated appeal with condonation of delay after 22nd July 2024 but before 16th August 2024 (before Finance (No. 2) Act, 2024 was passed) can he opt for VSV scheme: The scheme does not specifically provide for the appeals for which due date u/s 249 has expired on or before 23rd July 2024 but appeal is filed after 22nd July 2024 with condonation of delay.

45. The time limit for filing of appeal u/s 249 of the Income-tax Act, 1961 has got barred by limitation on or before 29.02.2016 (corresponding to 22.07.2024 under the VSV Scheme)

(iii) the delay in filing of such appeal is condoned by the Commissioner (Appeals)

In view of the above, if the delay is condoned by the appellate authority the declaration can be filed and even if the decision on delay has not been pronounced, the declaration may be filed in view of the Apex Court decision.

However, a clarification from CBDT will ease the situation.

When you are heading on a winter vacation ---- stuffing a variety of sunscreen, Lip Balm, Moisturizers, and hair styling products into your suitcase will make your journey comfortable for your outwardly outlook and refreshing your vital organs.

Winter is harsh on your skin if you are travelling to snow bound areas / mountainous hills with family in winter vacation then your skin care regime is required to adapt to the changing seasons

Apart from passport, aadhar cards, tickets, credit cards, which are absolutely essential travel documents, you will need the means to make yourself attractive, while traveling. Even though it is hard to look fashionable.

Think about travel essentials and how to limit your grooming needs, so that you look pleasing and enjoy your trip. Traveling light is an advantage, so you need items that are compact and portable. Get yourself a spacious shoulder bag and two small, plastic lined cases, for your toilet and make-tidy. Remember to take a scarf along to protect your hair from over-exposure to the sun, as too dressy. You will also need make-up cosmetics for the night. The lighting at night mountains, the emphasis will be on comfort. Casual wrinkle-free clothes, light weight spectrum sunscreen when out in the sun, not only on the face, but on all exposed areas. Apply up. Your beauty aids should be within easy reach, so that you can freshen up your makeup and alight from your journey looking attractive and self-confident. Searching for a lipstick or comb in a cluttered handbag can really test your patience. A short hairdo that you can just brush and arrange is good, while for long hair, take along a headband and hair clips, to keep your hair well as from wind and dust. You will need it if you are out motoring, boating or even walking by the seaside or hills. The make-up items and clothes you carry depend on what your trip entails. If you are holidaying in a big city and expect to meet people, you will need a few good clothes and accessories, for dining out. Take a few in-between outfits that are neither too casual, nor demands more colour, so include darker shades of lipstick, blush-on, eye-shadow and mascara. A hair-piece can provide instant glamour. Don't forget to take your perfume, one or two good accessories and a neutral evening purse that goes with your dressy outfits. These will help to add the finishing touches. If you are on a sightseeing trip, or on a vacation by the sea or shoes and sunglasses will be needed. On a vacation, one probably needs to carry more skin care cosmetics and fewer make-up aids. An anti-tan sunscreen or sun block would be good. The effects of sun exposure are greater by the waterside, or near snow, because water and snow are reflective surfaces. By the sea, avoid sun-exposure between noon and 3 p.m. Apply broad wear. Perhaps, a lip gloss will do. By the beach, you need make up products that are "waterproof" or "long lasting" and provide a matte finish.

You will also need pressed powder (compact) and powder blush-on. Remember to take a few tissues. If you have oily skin, or the weather is hot and humid, pre-moistened tissues are what you need. Carry them in your handbag when you go out, to clean and refresh your skin. Apart from these, take a deodorant and talcum powder.

Travel adds a wonderful dimension to one's life and personality. It enriches our experience and broadens our outlook. Travel also means a time that is refreshing and renewing. There is nothing more enjoyable than getting away from everyday and unwind. If you have taken care of your travel needs, all you have to do is relax and enjoy!

Tigress Zeenat reaches Bankura after travelling over 120 km, forest guards on their toes

K o l k a t a / Baripada(KCN) : Tranquilliser guns and cages to capture her, he said.

"She is now some distance away from the Gosaidihi village in Ranibandh. The locality has been surrounded by nylon nets. The waiting game continues but she will be trapped soon," he added.

Another forest officer said tranquilliser shots had been fired targeting her on the basis of the location of her radio collar.

"However, since visibility is poor in the jungle due to the prevalence of misty conditions, forest personnel cannot directly go near her. It is yet to be verified whether she has been hit," he said.

Zeenat travelled about 15 km to seek refuge December 27 from in a forest in Bandwan where she was holed up between December 24 and 26. She has been in West Bengal for nearly a week after crossing over from Jharkhand. The big cat has so far not touched the baits kept in trap-door cages but devoured domestic goats that strayed into the forests.

She has been travelling shorter distances over the last few days, officials said.

Drones have been deployed to monitor her movements but heavy forests are affecting the surveillance, they said. The tigress has covered over 120 km, roaming the forests at the tri-junction of West Bengal, Jharkhand, and Odisha, in search of new territory after leaving Similipal. She has shown no signs of heading back to Similipal so far, they added.

Zeenat was brought to Similipal from Tadoba-Andhari Tiger Reserve (TATR) in Maharashtra last month with the goal of introducing a new gene pool to the tiger population.

Another involved in international cybercrime syndicate held

Rourkela(KCN): With the arrest of yet another suspect from Uttar Pradesh, Rourkela police have made a significant breakthrough in investigation into an international cybercrime syndicate based out of South-East Asian countries and having links to various Asian countries.

IG (Western Range) Brijesh Rai, along with SP Nitesh Wadhwan and the investigation team, while briefing the media on the operation said that around 14 arrests have been made between January and August in 2024 in connection with the racket, many of whom were found to be operating out of Cambodia. Probe into the case was initiated after a senior Central government official reported a fraud of Rs67.7 lakh involving a fake trading app masquerading as the legitimate SEBI-registered entity INDIRA Securities.

"This case has far-reaching consequences, encompassing stock market fraud, scams via dating apps, cryptocurrency fraud, human trafficking, and cyber slavery, posing a threat to national security," said the senior officer. The investigation, which began earlier this year, attracted the attention of the Home Ministry and other Central security agencies due to its international scope. Look

Out Circulars were issued against more than 15 people involved in the scam. Based on the LOC, the Odisha Crime Branch and the Uttar Pradesh

Police managed to nab a key accused December 28. The accused has worked in multiple roles in Cambodia and India.

A major concern for authorities was the fate of over 1,000 Indian nationals who had been trafficked and were trapped in Cambodia, unable to return home as their passports had been seized and they lacked the means to travel back.

They also assured that the entire amount would be transferred back to his account after completion of the verification process," the investigators said.

"With no way out, the victim transferred around Rs1.38 crore in his and his wife's accounts to multiple accounts of the fraudsters between May 14 and 18 this year," they said.

After realising the fraud, the victim lodged a complaint with the cyber police who registered a case (28/2024) under Sections 419, 420, 465, 467, 468, 471, 384, 120-B and 34 of the IPC and 66C and 66D of the IT Act, 2000.

During probe, investigators learnt that Rs1.38 crore was deposited in three bank accounts. "Out of it, Rs1.12 crore was deposited in account of Vansheel Software Private Limited in Ghaziabad whose proprietors were Neelam and Vansh," they said. A Crime Branch team, led by inspector Anila Anand, reached UP and arrested the two from Vijay Nagar police station area and brought them to Odisha on transit remand December 27.

India to see largest increase in energy demand worldwide over the next 20 years, says Infomerics

New Delhi: India faces the twin dilemma of co-existence of shortage and abundance in several parts of its energy system. While the provision of electricity has increased significantly over the years, weak institutions and utility governance hamper the power sector's financial performance with issues of accountability, operational efficiency, customer service, and transmission to state-level transmission institutions. The sector takes a huge and grossly unacceptable hit due to extensive losses, leakages and pilferages, and the cost recovery from tariffs. These are some major findings of a report titled Power Sector in India: New Emerging Opportunities and Challenges released by Infomerics Valuation and Rating Pvt Ltd., the well-known SEBI-registered and RBI-accredited financial services credit rating company. The report explores the opportunities and challenges ahead for India as it seeks to ensure reliable, affordable and sustainable energy for a growing population. During FY20 and FY19, the growth of electricity generation was lower than in the previous financial years because of the impact of COVID-19. The report quotes the International Energy Agency (IEA) stating that during FY21 recovery in electricity demand from the COVID-19 pandemic was faster and stronger in India than in EU countries.

India is the third-largest producer and the third-largest consumer of electricity in the world. With the increasing population, electricity demand is rising at a fast clip and India has improved its power generation capacity over the years. India has added more than 500 billion units until FY22 from FY10.

Bumrah, Siraj and Labuschagne headline fast-moving Day 4 at MCG

New Delhi: Jasprit Bumrah became the first bowler in the history of the sport to pick 200 wickets at an average under 20 as his massive influence was felt on yet another day of cricket in the Border-Gavaskar Trophy.

Mohammed Siraj overturned his first-innings wastefulness by finding his rhythm quickly and keeping it up to snare three wickets. For Australia, Marnus Labuschagne rode his massive share of luck to score his second fifty of the Test to keep his team afloat on a see-saw day of cricket. Beyond the impact of this trio, Australia pushed their lead to 333 through a stubborn final-wicket stand between Nathan Lyon (41* off 54) and Scott Boland (10* off 65).

India's reliance on Bumrah has stood out in this Test - in the first innings, he bowled 28.4 overs of 122.4 - only thrice before had he bowled more in a single innings in Tests. In the second, he shouldered a bigger share - sending down 24 off 82 overs so far. In these 24 overs, he picked up four wickets to rattle Australia's cage after India conceded a 105-run first-innings lead.

He gave Day 4 a blockbuster start, taking out his first-innings nemesis Sam Konstas and celebrating like the 19-year-old did with the crowd on the previous day. He and Akash Deep then endured a

Calf strain rules Inglis out of Border-Gavaskar Trophy

NEW DELHI: Australia could be pushed into calling up a spare batter to the squad ahead of the New Year's Test in Sydney against India after Josh Inglis was ruled out of the series with a low-grade calf strain. Inglis suffered the injury while serving as a substitute during the ongoing Boxing Day Test in Melbourne.

The 29-year-old was the only spare batter left in the squad this week after all-rounder Beau

Webster was released to play in the Big Bash League. Interestingly, Inglis himself played two BBL games for the Perth Scorchers between the third and fourth Tests of the ongoing series before returning to national duties. Inglis's injury could pave the way for a return to the squad for Nathan McSweeney, who was left out in favour of Sam Konstas before this Test. McSweeney's versatility to bat across the NSW system," Tahmid told reporters in a zoom interview on Saturday, arranged by Prime Bank, who run a local cricket team that he represented in Bangladesh's domestic league. "It was where it all started for him. It was his technical, mental and tactical game. As the journey evolved, we were lucky enough to have Shane Watson involved in the mindset side of things. I worked quite closely with Shane over the last few years. I worked with him in the MLC with the San Francisco Unicorns," he added.

"He was always a technically sound player growing up. He had the fundamentals of the game. He wasn't a very powerful player. He didn't score very quickly growing up. He focused a lot on his white-ball cricket in the last 18 months. He made his BBL debut two weeks ago. The focus was to make him a better T20 player. He was contracted last year but didn't play any games. That's where his white-ball game really started to develop and come along," he said.

"He is quite a positive player so his goal is to put pressure back on to the opposition team. Someone that we use (as reference) is Harry Brook with whom I was lucky enough to play in Sydney. He is the No. 1 Test batter in the world. He is a fantastic all-format player, with whom I am really good friends. I get a lot of information from him, which I relay on to Sam (Konstas) on how to transition between formats. It can be quite challenging but nowadays you have to switch between formats. Sam from Bumrah to Nitish Reddy at mid-wicket. This was Bumrah's milestone 200th scalp in the format. The ace pacer got an out-of-sorts Mitchell Marsh to nick one behind soon and then breached the bat-pad gap of Alex Carey, to leave Australia down to 91 for 6.

Just when India were on the rise, Pat Cummins arrived to dim their enthusiasm by putting on a stand with Labuschagne, who made the most of his near-misses and two dropped catches - both by Yashasvi Jaiswal. They put on 57 vital runs to push Australia's lead before Siraj and India found themselves on the right side of an 'umpire's call' for an LBW appeal against Labuschagne. With Labuschagne dismissed, Rohit Sharma kept bringing Bumrah back for short spells to try and wrap up the lower order but that didn't quite transpire as he would have liked. Mitchell Starc fell to a sharp run out by Pant, and Cummins nicked Jadeja to Rohit at first slip to fall for 41 but the last-wicket alliance remained undefeated. From 173 for 9, Lyon by 333 runs

Boland insists Australia in 'strong position' despite Nitish heroics

NEW DELHI: Australia are still in a good position to win the ongoing MCG Test, according to pacer Scott Boland. Even though India had a fruitful day on Day 3 after that memorable partnership between Nitish Reddy and Washington Sundar, Boland believes Australia can stamp their authority with the bat on the fourth day.

"We're leading by 115 (116) runs, so we are in a pretty strong position," Boland said after the day's play. "Obviously it could have been better, but I think that's how Test match cricket ebbs and flows. Hopefully tomorrow morning we get that first wicket and then put on a really nice lead and see how the game plays after that."

Boland also backed compatriot Mitchell Starc to shrug off a potential injury after he appeared to be holding his back at one point on the third day. "He's okay, I think he's just had a bit of a niggle in his back or rib, but he came out after the (tea) break and was bowling 140 (kph) so I think he'll be fine," Boland noted. "I think he's underrated for how tough he is. A couple of years ago here at the MCG he had a broken finger and we were planning for him not to bowl at all - and then he came out and bowled 140k swingers. He's someone who can play through a lot of pain."

The 35-year-old quick then reserved praise for Nitish, who brought up his maiden ton on the big stage. "He's playing really nicely," Boland remarked. "Coming in down the middle, it's a lower-order, but he's sort of trying to put the pressure back on us. And he's playing nicely. He played really well. He's been a young guy from India who's come through and strikes the ball really well.

"It looks like he's got pretty much every shot in the book. I played the A' game against him, the PM's game and then a couple of Tests. You see he can score all around the ground. He's obviously a very nice player and does well in the IPL and he's doing well here in Australian conditions as well."

Nitish's batting partner on made sure he was also aware that we needed to see through a few balls as well when the situation got really challenging for us. This hundred will be talked about and remembered for a long time."

On his own fighting fifty, Washington Sundar also waxed lyrical on the youngster pointing out that his century will be remembered for a long time. "One thing for sure is he is mentally very very strong," Washington said.

"I've known him for quite a few years. The way he went about his business was amazing. He made sure he picked those phases in the game where he thought he would get a few boundaries. He directions about preparations for an international match. They told him to keep playing with freedom. He got back-to-back centuries in the first two games of the Sheffield Shield season. He played a slightly different tempo," he added.

"He has been doing reverse ramps for five or six years in the nets. He brought it out in a Test match at the MCG. It doesn't happen by mistake. They have a lot of preparation to go out and execute in the game. When you have clarity from your captain and organisation, it helps you to go out and express yourself. They don't have the fear of getting dropped," he added.

Tahmid revealed that the right-handed batter also works a lot on visualisation for 10 to 15 minutes before each game.

Konstas taking on Bumrah 'isn't a surprise' - childhood coach Tahmid Islam people are going to say if he gets it wrong. I think it is his biggest skill and asset. Whereas loads of players think about the consequences like 'what if I fail doing it' or 'what if I get out playing it' or 'the media and coaching staff will have a go at me,' said Tahmid.

"Sam is quite assured in his game. After playing and missing six times in his first ten or twelve balls, he thought that the best way to put pressure on Bumrah was to try to put him off his length. He threw a different challenge at Bumrah, which was really good for (Sam). It really shell-shocked India. They weren't expecting a 19-year-old to come out and play with that sort of freedom," he said.

"It isn't a surprise. The reason Australia picked him was to throw India a different challenge. Sam took on the Indian bowling attack, minus Bumrah, during his century for the Prime Ministers XI against India, probably three weeks ago. He played with a lot of freedom. He played the reverse scoop. He ran down the wicket to play back over the bowler's head," he said.

"Sam is someone who will play some shots and put people off their lengths, as opposed to the traditional approach of the first three games. It was a bit of a gamble. It paid off for Australia. Marnus Labuschagne and Steven Smith were talking about how Sam's innings gave them the opportunity to go out and express themselves as well. It was the freedom which they probably lacked in the first few games," he said.

"The Australian selectors, coach Andrew McDonald and captain Pat Cummins give clear
