

BJD chief Naveen Patnaik speaks to Naidu, congratulates TDP leader

Bhubaneswar(KCN): Odisha's outgoing chief minister and BJD president Naveen Patnaik Sunday congratulated TDP leader N Chandrababu Naidu for his party's success in the recently concluded elections. Taking to X, Patnaik said, "Spoke with Shri N Chandrababu Naidu Ji (@ncbn) and congratulated him on his stupendous success in the just concluded elections. I have been associated with him for a very long time during my political journey. Wish #AndhraPradesh reach new heights of development under your leadership."

Naidu's Telugu Desam Party (TDP) secured 135 seats in the 175-member Andhra Pradesh assembly followed by Jansena Party (21), YSRCP (11) ands BJP (8). In the parliamentary elections, TDP won 16 out of the 25 Lok Sabha seats in the state, followed by YSRCP (4), BJP (3) and JNP (2). Patnaik's BJD on the other hand had lost the polls in Odisha by securing 51 of the 147 Assembly seats while the BJP bagged 78, Congress (14), Independent (3) and CPI(M) 1 seat. The BJD could not open its account in the Lok Sabha polls while BJP won 20 seats and one was clinched by the Congress.

Narendra Modi Takes Oath As Prime Minister Of India For 3rd Straight Term

New Delhi(KCN): Narendra Modi on Sunday was sworn-in as the Prime Minister of India for the third consecutive time by President Droupadi Murmu at Rashtrapati Bhavan in New Delhi at 7:15pm.

PM Modi is the second person in India's history to become the Prime Minister for three successive terms. The country's first prime minister, Jawaharlal Nehru, had won the 1952, 1957 and 1962 general elections. Modi's swearing-in ceremony was followed by Cabinet ministers taking oath of office. Senior BJP leaders including Rajnath Singh, Amit Shah, Nitin Gadkari, JP Nadda and others were administered oath by the President.

The Modi 3.0 cabinet will be 72 minister strong.

The team includes 30 other Cabinet Ministers, 5 Minister of State with Independent Charge and 36 Ministers of State. PM Modi retained his top ministers for key cabinet positions, with multiple positions allotted to NDA allies. Around 1,100 traffic police personnel of the Delhi Police have been deployed and an advisory was issued to the public for the traffic movement route arrangements have been made for the delegates as part of the arrangements. Several leaders and State heads of neighbourhood region and Indian Ocean region were invited for PM Modi's swearing-in ceremony as distinguished guests, a testament to India's 'Neighbourhood First' policy. The Ministry of External Affairs (MEA) in an official statement on Saturday said, "President of Sri Lanka, Ranil Wickremesinghe; President of Maldives, Mohamed Muizzu; Vice-President of Seychelles, Ahmed Afif; Prime Minister of Bangladesh, Sheikh Hasina; Prime Minister of Mauritius, Pravind Kumar Jugnauth; Prime Minister of Nepal, Pushpa Kamal Dahal 'Prachanda'; and Prime Minister of Bhutan, Tshering Tobgay, have accepted the invitation to attend." 8,000 guests, including national and international leaders, were invited to attend the swearing-in ceremony. The varied guest list included outgoing Parliamentarians, BJP leaders, opposition leaders, current MLAs and MLCs, celebrated doctors, lawyers, religious leaders, sanitation workers, rat-hole miners, and heads of state from neighbouring countries.

Achyuta Samanta Quits Active Politics

Bhubaneswar, (KCN): Dr. Achyuta Samanta, a prominent leader of the Biju Janata Dal and former MP, has stepped aside from active politics. Dr. Samanta expressed his decision after meeting Biju Janata Dal President and Chief Minister Naveen Patnaik at Naveen Niwas yesterday. Also he thanked Shri Patnaik for giving him chances both in Rajya Sabha and Lok Sabha. Dr. Samanta stated that his commitment to social service for the last 32 years will continue till his last breath. After his defeat in the Kandhamal parliamentary constituency this year, he announced his retirement from active politics on June 9. On the other hand, Dr. Samanta thanked members of BJD and the people of the Kandhamal Parliamentary Constituency for their love and support.

BJP Government's Oath Ceremony In Odisha Postponed Amid Suspense Over Chief Minister

Bhubaneswar(KCN): The swearing-in ceremony for the first BJP government in Odisha has been rescheduled from June 10 to June 12, party leaders Jatin Mohanty and Vijaypal Singh Tomar confirmed here on Sunday.

Mohanty explained that the postponement was due to Prime Minister Narendra Modi's commitments. PM Modi will be busy with his own swearing-in ceremony on Sunday and meeting party MPs the following day. Additionally, the first legislature party meeting of the newly elected members is now set for June 11.

During the election campaign, PM Modi had said Odisha's first BJP government would be sworn in on June 10. BJP state president Manmohan Samal had also confirmed this on Saturday. However, the decision to change the date was taken on Sunday, party sources said. Meanwhile, suspense still remains over the new chief minister. Senior BJP leader and newly elected MLA Suresh Pujari rushed to New Delhi, triggering speculation that he may be among the main contenders for the top post, sources said. Pujari, who was elected to the Lok Sabha from Bargarh in the 2019 polls, won the recent election from Brajarajnagar assembly constituency. His supporters believe he was called to New Delhi for discussions with central leaders. While the BJP central leadership is yet to zero in on any leader for the CM post, Odisha party unit president Manmohan Samal on Saturday told reporters to wait for two more days for a clear picture to emerge. After returning from New Delhi, Samal said the parliamentary board of BJP would take a decision on the chief minister at its meeting. The BJP secured a comfortable majority in the 147-member Assembly, winning 78 seats. The party went to the elections under the leadership of PM Modi without naming a chief ministerial candidate. Meanwhile, preparations are on to organise the oath-taking ceremony at Janata Maidan in Bhubaneswar.

"I Am Sorry If...": Naveen Patnaik's Key Aide VK Pandian Quits Politics

New Delhi(KCN): Days after the BJD suffered a shock defeat in the Lok Sabha and Assembly elections in Odisha, former IAS officer and BJD chief Naveen Patnaik's key aide VK Pandian has announced that he is quitting active politics. Mr Pandian, who quit the civil service and joined the BJD in November last year, released a video message in which he said he comes from a humble family and a small village. He said his childhood dream was to join the IAS and serve the people. "(From) the day I set foot in the soil of Odisha, I have received immense love and affection from the people of Odisha," he said, adding that he has tried to work very hard for the people across the state. Mr Pandian said it has been an honour to work for Naveen Patnaik, who would have reached the milestone of being the country's longest-serving Chief Minister if the BJD returned to power. "The experience and learning I got is for a lifetime. His grace, leadership, ethics and above all, the love for the people of Odisha always inspired me. His expectation from me was to implement his vision for Odisha and we successfully crossed many milestones in health, education, poverty reduction, ports, investment, women empowerment, infrastructure and also in temple and heritage projects," he said. Mr Pandian said he left the IAS and joined the BJD to assist his mentor Naveen Patnaik. "My only intent was to help him, as anyone would do for his mentor and family. I would like to set straight certain perceptions and narratives. Perhaps, it has been my shortcoming that I have not been able to effectively counter some of these political narratives. I came to politics to help my mentor Naveen Patnaik ahead of the gruelling elections and I had no desire, whatsoever, for a specific political post or power. That's why I was neither a candidate nor was I holding any post in Biju Janata Dal," he said. Among the key reasons behind BJD's poor show in this election was an "outsider" perception about Mr Pandian, who wielded considerable clout within the BJD and the state's administrative machinery. This perception, further stoked by the BJP's campaign, is learnt to have played a key role in the Assembly election results and also in the BJD's setback in the Lok Sabha polls. The BJD scored a blank in this general election, a massive slide from its 2019 tally of 12. In the Assembly election, its tally was down from 112 seats in 2019 to 51 this time, paving the way for the BJP's march to power. There was also speculation that Mr Pandian was emerging as Mr Patnaik's political heir, a buzz the senior leader has trashed. Mr Pandian said he worked hard for 12 years with focus on Naveen Patnaik and Odisha. "The only property I have is what I inherited from my grandparents. I or my immediate family have no other property anywhere in the world. The biggest earning in my lifetime has been the love and affection and goodwill of people of Odisha. My intent of joining politics was only to assist Naveen Babu and I have consciously decided to withdraw myself from active politics. I am sorry if I have hurt anyone in this journey. I am sorry if this campaign narrative against me has had a part to play in BJD's loss. I apologise to the entire Biju parivar, including all workers. My heartfelt gratitude to lakhs of Biju parivar members I am associated with," he said.

PM Modi's traditional Sambalpuri stole highlights his focus on Odisha

Sambalpur (KCN): Ahead of the swearing-in ceremony, Prime Minister Narendra Modi Sunday morning paid tributes to Mahatma Gandhi at Rajghat and former PM Atal Bihari Vajpayee at his memorial 'Sadaiv Atal'. PM Modi was seen wearing the trademark Kurta Pyjama along with a traditional handwoven Sambalpuri stole of Odisha highlighting a shift of focus towards the eastern state that played a vital role in the emergence of Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) as the single largest party. The Sambalpuri clothes including sarees and other dress materials are traditional handwoven textile that reflects the artistic traditions, skilled craftsmanship and cultural aesthetics of Odisha. It is pertinent here to mention that the party workers as well as leaders are also buoyed by the emphatic win in Odisha Assembly polls that ended the 24-year rule of Naveen Patnaik-led Biju Janata Dal.

The excitement in the party can be gauged from the fact that PM Modi Friday began his speech at the Central Hall of the Old Parliament with Jay Jagannath chants. "When I think about Lord Jagannath, I believe that he is the God of the poor," he said at the meeting of the newly elected MPs of the BJP-led National Democratic Alliance (NDA).

PM Modi, who led the aggressive and successful election campaign against the Biju Janata Dal during the just concluded polls, asserted that Odisha will be the growth engine in the developmental journey of India for the next 25 years.

Notably, the BJP swept the Lok Sabha elections in Odisha by registering a win in 20 seats out of the total 21 parliamentary constituencies of the state. The party is also going to form the government in Odisha for the first time since Independence. The party won 78 out of the 147 Assembly segments of the state ending the 24-year rule of Naveen Patnaik. Meanwhile, all eyes in Odisha are on the swearing-in ceremony to know how many elected MPs from the state get ministerial berths in the Modi-3.0.

ECI seeks action against Odisha IPS officer, revokes suspension on another Bhubaneswar (KCN): The Election Commission of India (ECI) has recommended action against Odisha's IPS officer Ashish Kumar Singh for "misrepresentation of fact" about his health condition while revoking the suspension order on another senior police officer DS Kutey.

In a letter to the Chief Electoral Officer (CEO) of Odisha, the ECI said the report of the special medical board of AIIMS, Bhubaneswar, has declared Singh, a 2010 batch IPS officer, physically and mentally fit.

While Kutey, the special secretary to Odisha Chief Minister, was suspended by the ECI May 28 for "unduly interfering in the conduct of election," the Commission had ordered a medical examination of Singh by a special medical board of the AIIMS Bhubaneswar. "The commission, prima facie, found it is a case of misrepresentation of fact on part of Sri Ashish Kumar Singh, IPS, it is directed that the report of the Special Medical Board, AIIMS Bhubaneswar, be forwarded to chief secretary, Government of Odisha, for appropriate necessary action against the officer as deemed fit," the ECI's letter to the CEO, Odisha said. The ECI said Kutey's suspension should be revoked with immediate effect with the condition that the other directions given in its May 28 letter will continue.

Departmental proceedings, if instituted, may only be decided with concurrence of the Commission, the June 6 letter said. Kutey may report to the Chief Secretary for further posting, as deemed fit, it added.

Earlier, while suspending Kutey on the charge of unduly interfering in the conduct of election, the ECI had stated, "his headquarters is fixed at the office of Resident

Summer Days Are Hot But Stylish Too For Taapsee Pannu's Cover Looks

Whether it is about playing a bold character or acing interesting wardrobe choices, Taapsee Pannu is well-versed in how to jazz things up. The actress is living the best of her "It girl" era and we are just mere spectators. Her latest photoshoot is the next page in that book. Taapsee turned the cover girl for Cosmopolitan India's May-June issue and we bring you her stunning six looks.

For the first look, Taapsee slipped into a lemon green monokini by the clothing label Studio Verandah. Its V-neckline was held together with adjustable spaghetti straps in the dark green hue. The actress styled the monokini with high waist scramble knit trousers by designer duo Shivan and Narresh. Next up, Taapsee Pannu slipped into an orange knit wrap dress, again from the shelves of Shivan and Narresh. The see-through midi came with a deep-cut V-neckline letting the black lace bralette sneak peek from within. With full sleeves, the zesty dress featured a thigh-high slit. This time, Taapsee half-

Taapsee Pannu's third look may solve the beachwear dilemma for many. The actress picked an oversized white crochet shirt with collars. She styled this see-through number with a halter-neck bikini top coming from the shelves of Shivan and Narresh. Prime Video's Maitri: Female First Collective Hosts Its First Session In Chennai

Prime Video released the latest session of 'Maitri: Female First Collective', hosting its maiden discussion in Chennai. Launched last year, the collective is an endeavour to create a safe space where women from the Indian media and entertainment industry can come together to discuss their experiences, challenges and successes, and offer their perspective on bringing about a positive shift.

The session featured 8 eminent women from India's various entertainment industries, ranging from award-winning prolific actors who have worked across languages like Malavika Mohanan, Aishwarya Rajesh and Madhoo, to women who have left an indelible mark behind the camera, like creator, writer, showrunner & producer Reshma Ghatala, writer & director Swathi Raghuraaman, and cinematographer Yamini Yagnamurthy, in addition to Aparna Purohit, creator - Maitri & head of India Originals, Prime Video, and Smriti Kiran, creator and curator of Maitri & founder, Polka Dots LightBox. Sharing personal anecdotes, the participants discussed the existing gender dynamics in the film industry, the challenges faced by female professionals, including stereotyping, colourism, ageism, and much more.

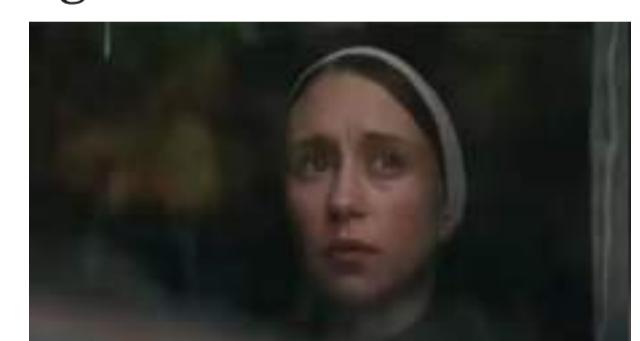

Surprisingly, the women noted how the issues were similar irrespective of whether they worked in front of the camera or behind it, or whether they worked in production or corporate roles. The core discussion also touched upon the true essence of feminism and empowerment, what gender-equality really means for the trailblazers gathered in the room. An interesting insight that was shared by all was that true equality can be achieved when the industry stops tagging a particular role, a narrative or a job as woman-oriented or male-oriented. The group as a whole agreed that age-old conditioning often restricts the personal and professional growth potential of women, and can be changed only if it is internalized in one's home and social environment. The interaction also highlighted the critical role that streaming was playing in improving female representation, creating new opportunities for actors, regardless of their age, body size, or skin colour, and for creators to tell all kinds of unique stories.

"Equal representation opens up a new world for young girls to draw inspiration from, making it all the more important to have women in positions of influence, where they can provide a platform for newer voices and open up doors for more women," said Aparna Purohit, creator - Maitri & head of India Originals, Prime Video. "However, we know that change is a gradual process. It is, therefore, important for us to continue having these discussions across the country, and we are thrilled to have hosted our first session in Chennai. Even though it is only a year old, Maitri has managed to drive change in the right

The Nun 2 Trailer Teases Returns Of 'The Conjuring' Universe

The makers of 'The Nun' are all set to come up with the film's sequel. On Thursday, they unveiled the film's trailer and it has definitely left fans excited. The sequel, which is headlined by Taissa Farmiga, is set to be out on September 8.

As per Variety, the film begins in 1956 after a priest is viciously murdered in France. According to the film's official logline, 'The Nun 2' follows Sister Irene (Farmiga) as she once again comes face to face with the demonic Valak. Farmiga returns alongside Bonnie Aarons and Jonas Bloquet who will reprise their roles as Valak and Maurice "Frenchie," respectively. "The Nun 2" will introduce new additions to the "Conjuring" universe, including Katelyn Rose Downey as Sophie, Anna Popplewell as Marcella and Storm Reid as an unknown new character. The USD 2 billion franchise began in 2013, with the original "The Conjuring" film, starring Patrick Wilson and Taissa Farmiga's older sister, Vera Farmiga. The original film was inspired by the paranormal investigators Ed and Lorraine Warren's nonfiction book, "The Amityville Horror." "The Conjuring's" first spinoff, "The Nun" in 2018. Since "The Nun," the "Conjuring" universe has released "The Curse of La Llorona," "Annabelle Comes Home" and "The Conjuring: The Devil Made Me Do It." Directed by "The Conjuring: The Devil Made Me Do It's" Michael Chaves, "The Nun 2" was written by "The Nun 2" screenwriter Akela Cooper and "Fear the Walking Dead" screenwriters Ian Goldberg and Richard Naing.

Prabhas, Deepika Padukone's Project K To Create History, To Be First Indian Film To Debut At San Diego Comic-Con

There's good news for Bollywood lovers who have been waiting for a long time to get an update on Amitabh Bachchan, Deepika Padukone, Kamal Haasan and Prabhas-starrer 'Project K'. According to Variety, The hugely-anticipated Indian big-budget sci-fi film will unveil exclusive footage in the presence of talent at the San Diego Comic-Con (SDCC). Kicking off the SDCC celebration, Vyjayanthi Movies will offer fans a look at the film as part of an opening night party on July 19.

On July 20, the film's team will host a panel titled "This is Project K: First Glimpse of India's Mytho-Sci-fi Epic" with Deepika, Prabhas and Haasan during which the film's full title, teaser trailer and release date will be revealed. Variety reported. Interestingly, the stars will also feature in a performance on SDCC's largest stage. "This exclusive event will transport guests into India's most ambitious cinematic universe yet with their captivating storytelling, futuristic setting, and 'Spice Punk' aesthetic inspired by the film," the producers said in a statement. Director Ashwin also expressed excitement. He said, "We are thrilled to present 'Project K's' debut at San Diego Comic-Con. India's storytelling tradition has ancient roots, with its epics serving as the origins for many civilizations worldwide. A world as big as this needs a platform as big to introduce it to the people. Comic-Con felt like the perfect place, where the honesty and enthusiasm needed for 'Project K' will be found."

Condonation of delay in filing Appeals Part 2

Adv. Narayan Jain & CA Dilip Loyalka

2. Rameshbhai v. Prajapati v. Deputy CIT, Gandhinagar [2021] 127 taxmann.com 674 (Ahmedabad - Trib.)- Where previous tax consultant of assessee had not attended tax matter satisfactorily and new tax consultant had obtained various documents, and that these circumstances and his ill health caused delay in filing Miscellaneous Application against ex parte order passed on account of non-prosecution, keeping in view rule 24 of Income-tax Appellate Tribunal, 1963, delay in filing Miscellaneous Application was to be condoned.

3. Adarsh Co. Op. Bank Ltd. v. Income Tax Officer, Surendranagar Circle [2021] 126 taxmann.com 169 (Gujarat): Where assessee co-operative bank had sought condonation of delay of 342 days in filing appeal before the High Court on ground that its Branch Manager who was looking after official communication of order of Court was retired around same time when order of Tribunal was passed and advocate of assessee had passed away, impugned delay was to be condoned.

4. Shree Datta Prasad SahakariPatsantha Ltd. v. ITO [2022] 134 taxmann.com 324

(Mum): Where assessee had a bona fide belief that appeal against cancellation of rejection of registration under sec. 12A would cover the rejection of approval under sec. 80G and hence did not file a separate appeal, the delay should be condoned.

5. Ornate Traders Pvt. Ltd. v. ITO [2009] 312 ITR 193 (Bom.); Pedrola Srinivasa Murthy v. CIT [2015] 43 CCH 0247 (Vishakhapatnam Trib)- Where there was no proper explanation and no sufficient cause was shown for condonation of delay and there was apparent negligence and callousness on the part of the Officer/officials of the Department to the extent that even correct statements had not been made, the delay could not be condoned.

6. Mayfair Builders & Developers v. Deputy CIT [2008] 306 ITR (AT) 308 (Pune)- Where the assessee had not paid the admitted tax, which was paid after a delay along with a fresh appeal with a request for condonation of delay, the same may be granted.

7. Union of India v. Visveswaraya Iron & Steel Ltd. [1987] 166 ITR 64 (SC), CIT v. Tezpoore Tea Co. Ltd. [2005] 279 ITR 339 (Cal.)- Where the Department sought to explain the delay in the form of a list of dates, a very slip-shod method and no responsible officer had taken the responsibility as to why this delay occurred in the Department and the affidavit had been affirmed by an Inspector in such a serious case, the delay could not be condoned.

8. Vama Apparels (India) Pvt. Ltd. v. ACIT [2019] 102 taxmann.com 398 (Bombay)- Where assessee explained that old employee left the papers in his drawer and left and when new employee joined, he found it, the delay of 507 days cannot be condoned.

9. Catholic Syrian Bank Ltd. v.

DCIT[2018] 98 taxmann.com 466 (Cochin - ITAT): Where assessee, a scheduled bank stated that delay was due to transfer of concerned officer in branch with whom papers were pending for preparation of appeals, the same was not sufficient reason to condone the delay.

10. Nihalkaran v. Commissioner of Wealth Tax [1989] 175 ITR 14 (MP): Where the clerk of the assessee had taken the case papers to the office of the counsel but those papers "got mixed up in the disposed of files", the High Court dismissed the application for condonation of delay on the ground that the affidavit filed by the clerk of the assessee did not disclose whether the papers were handed over by the clerk to the counsel and the counsel had not filed any affidavit. The affidavit of the clerk did not disclose what steps had been taken by the assessee for filing an application u/s 27(3) from the date when the application should have been filed till the date when the papers were alleged to have been located. Therefore, the assessee had failed to show that there was sufficient cause for the delay in filing the application for condonation of delay.

11. Vijay Vishin Meghani v. DCIT 86 taxmann.com 98 (Bombay): Advice of a Chartered Accountant not to file appeal supported by an affidavit but later another tax expert advised for filing the appeal, may be a sufficient ground for condonation of delay.

12. Nulon (M.S.) India Ltd. v. CIT [1996] 219 ITR 736 (Del.): Where the assessee contended that the delay occurred because the assessee was not given proper legal guidance when he received the assessment order, but it was found the assessee had the services not only of a Chartered Accountant but also of a tax consultant who was a former Indian Revenue Service person working in the Income Tax Department, the contention of the assessee that he could not get proper legal guidance was not valid.

13. CIT v. Progressive Education Society [2019] 103 taxmann.com 163 (SC): Where delay is caused due to difference of opinion between two officers and final decision for filing appeal was taken after obtaining a legal opinion, the delay may be condoned.

14. E line Technologies Ltd. v. DCIT [2018] 99 taxmann.com 219 (Madras): Where delay was caused as Director and Chief Executive Officer of assessee who had to take a decision to file an appeal had resigned and subsequently a new DCEO was appointed who after considering issue, took up matter before Board of Directors and then a decision was taken to file appeal, the delay was to be condoned.

15. Nitesh Agarwal v. ACIT [2018] 97 taxmann.com 459

(Jaipur - ITAT): If the family is going through a turbulent time due to ill health of family member, the delay should be condoned.

16. Natthi Singh v. ITO Wd-4 Bharatpur ITA No. 117/JP/2023: Where intimation u/s 143(1) or order u/s 143(3) or appellate order u/s 250 enters into the spam folder of the assessee with the result that assessee could not notice the same, the delay in furnishing appeal is to be condoned.

17. Suman Jeet Agarwal v. ITO [2022] 143 taxmann.com 11 (Delhi): Where the order is sent in the assessee's account of e-filing portal, the same shall be deemed to have been received on the date the assessee opened the same.

Slapping Kangana: Reflection of farmers' anger or a sign of rising terrorism?

Jag Mohan Thaken

maa baithi thi vahan pe jab isne bayaan diya tha. (She (Kangana) stated that the farmers are sitting there for ?100. Had she a sit in there? My mother was sitting there and protesting when she gave this statement".

Samyukta Kisan Morcha leader Dr. Inderjeet Singh, National Vice-President of All India Kisan Sabha (AIKS), says, "It is still in the memory of people that Kangana Ranaut had once said that women on borders were a hired lot. Kangana had never apologised for her remarks against farmers movement as such and attempting to tarnish the dignity of women farmers in particular. So, acrimony will persist against her among the peasantry for the insinuations uttered by her."

While sharing his version to this author, Dr. Singh adds, "We know so many BJP and RSS leaders had made unacceptable and outrageous remarks against the movement and farmers. Some of them had to apologise on being boycotted by farmers bodies under SKM. The anger was obviously more visible during just concluded Lok Sabha elections, especially in Punjab and Haryana."

The SKM leader also puts forward another reason for the conflict. "Some people say that there was an issue over phone to be placed in the tray during security checks which Kangana perhaps was avoiding which seems plausible as per her temperament."

Alleging Kangana of habitually indulging in making stupid remarks on various subjects and often doing loose talks, Dr. Inderjeet says, "Kangana had later made an even more inflammatory and sensitive remark about trends emerging in Punjab of terrorism and separatism which surprises no one as she has been habitually indulging in making stupid remarks on various subjects and often doing loose talks." Why Kangana Ranaut is trying to divert the reason of incident inclining towards terrorism angle? Why she is bent upon proving its linkage to terrorism? Indian Express in an update on June 7, on its web portal, writes – "Kangana claimed that the CISF constable 'strategically waited' for her to cross the security check, and 'in a signature Khalistani style', quietly came from behind and hit (her) face without saying a word."

"As soon as I came out after the security check, a woman in another cabin, a CISF security staff, she waited for me to cross her and hit my face from the side. She started abusing me. When I asked her why, she said that she supports the farmers' protest." Is the action of the CISF constable has any linkage with the terrorism? Has terrorism actually rising in Punjab? How so confidently Kangana is alleging that the terrorism and extremism is increasing in Punjab? If Kangana is seeing, noticing, sensing and feeling that terrorism and extremism is increasing in Punjab, and has proofs, then why she has not warned and informed the central government run by her own party since last 10 years? Should such a charge be levelled on the basis of no ground. Whether other political parties or the inhabitants of the state and the country also smell the bad odour of the terrorism?

Is there any substance in what Kangana seeing terrorism in every incident, and especially during farmers' agitation or present airport incident?

Harsimrat Kaur Badal, wife of Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD) President Sukhbir Badal and an MP from Punjab, commenting in her X account, says, "I urge union govt to focus on farmer grievances & fulfil the promises made. No one should be allowed to label Punjabis as Atankwadi or Ugarwadi. Punjabis are foremost patriots, serving the nation on the borders and as food providers. We deserve better."

Sukhpal Singh Khaira, @SukhpalKhaira, MLA Bholath, Former Leader

of Opposition, Punjab and Chairman All India Kisan Congress condemns Kangana Ranaut's statements, "I vehemently condemn the hate mongering of fascist @ Kangana Team. Kangana Ranaut spreading hatred against farmers & Punjab. I never support any kind of violence but she was slapped by CISF personnel Kulwinder Kaur due to her own nefarious divisive agenda and her hate for farmers. The CISF personnel hit her bcoz she felt bad when Kangana taunted protesting farmers to be paid daily wagers as her mother was part of the same protest. It appears she has learnt no lesson and is once again spitting venom against farmers & Punjab. She's trying to portray her slap with revival of terrorism in Punjab not realizing it was a SLAP and not a bullet fired. She should now realise she's an MP and must control her tongue."

Punjab based senior journalist, Jai Singh Chhibber suggests both sides to mend their ways.

Sharing his views with this author, Chhibber says, "What happened with the newly elected Member of Parliament Kangana Ranaut should not have happened. This has sent a wrong message to the whole world. Especially a lady constable deployed for security carried out such an incident, which is even more dangerous, this will lead to loss of trust in the people deployed for security. India is a democratic country. In this, everyone has the right to express their views."

Chhibber further adds, "Kangana Ranaut had made harsh comments about the people sitting on dharna, especially the farmers, demanding the repeal of the three agricultural bills, but this does not mean that she should be treated rudely. She should be slapped. No one can tolerate this. Now she has been elected to the Parliament. One should respond with dialogue and slogans; slapping is not the right way."

Showing a middle path, Chhibber suggests, "One more thing, everyone should control his/her language. One should not use such language and words which spread hatred in the society."

Counteracting and outrightly rejecting Kangana's statements of linking every incident with terrorism and alleging that the terrorism is rising its head in Punjab, Journalist Chhibber says, "The second thing is that Kangana Ranaut has again talked about terrorism in Punjab yesterday. She has again spoken about hatred. She should avoid such language, especially now that she has been elected to the Parliament of the country. No one from Punjab wants Khalistan. There may be a handful of people who support it, but those who have seen the old days of Punjab want peace, brotherhood, living together with everyone in Punjab and want to make Punjab a developed Punjab. Gurus, saints and prophets have also taught us to live together with love."

It seems crystal clear that alleged slapping incident at Chandigarh airport has nothing to do with the terrorism and it is just a momentary reaction of Kulwinder Kaur generated out of rage against Kangana's statements for the farmers sitting on Dharna for getting the three black agricultural laws repealed.

Actual facts will come out during the course of investigation. The government and the CISF should act in fairly manner while considering the case of Kulwinder Kaur. She must be given a fair opportunity of hearing in a fair investigation and not victimized without any substantiative grounds. Kangana should show maturity as per her status.

On No NCP In Modi 3.0, Devendra Fadnavis Says No Consensus On Cabinet Offer

Mumbai(KCN): The Ajit Pawar-led Nationalist Congress Party wanted a cabinet berth in the Narendra Modi government but declined an offer from the BJP for a minister of state (MoS) with independent charge, Maharashtra Deputy Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis said today.

"We had offered one berth of a minister with an independent charge to the NCP and insisted that (Rajya Sabha MP) Praful Patel's name be finalised. Due to his (Mr Patel's) experience, the NCP believed he could not be made MoS with independent charge," he said.

"In a coalition government, a formula has to be drawn, which cannot be broken for one party. I can confidently say whenever cabinet expansion takes place, the (Union) government will consider the NCP. We did try to include NCP right now, but they insisted on cabinet portfolio," the senior BJP leader said.

Meanwhile, speaking to reporters in Delhi, Maharashtra Deputy Chief Minister Ajit

Pawar asserted the NCP "was ready to wait" but wanted a cabinet berth. "We have one Lok Sabha member (Sunil Tatkare) and one Rajya Sabha MP (Praful Patel). In the coming months, we will have two additional Rajya Sabha MPs. We will have four MPs (then). We should (then) get a cabinet berth. We are ready to wait but want a cabinet berth," Ajit Pawar said. Speaking to reporters in Delhi, Praful Patel said, "We were informed last night we will get a minister of state with independent charge. I was earlier cabinet minister (in the UPA government) and being made MoS would be a demotion. The BJP told us to wait for a few days and said they will take remedial measures."

While Mr Patel said there is no "problem in the alliance" on this issue, Ajit Pawar asserted the NCP was supporting the NDA in the interest of the nation. The Ajit Pawar-led NCP, part of the ruling alliance in Maharashtra along with the BJP and the Shiv Sena, managed to win just one seat (Raigad) of the four it contested in the Lok Sabha polls. It also lost the prestige battle in Baramati, where Ajit Pawar's wife Sunetra Pawar was trounced by the sitting MP from the rival NCP faction and his cousin, Supriya Sule.

Anurag Thakur, Who May Not Be Part Of Modi 3.0 Cabinet

New Delhi(KCN): Former Union Minister Anurag Thakur today congratulated Prime Minister Narendra Modi and his ministers who are taking oath this evening at the Rashtrapati Bhavan. Mr Thakur, who held the sports, and information and broadcasting portfolios in Prime Minister Narendra Modi's last cabinet, has apparently been dropped, sources said.

"I extend my best wishes and congratulations to Prime Minister Narendra Modi on his third term and heartiest wishes to all his ministers and may they do a wonderful job and take the country forward in the next 5 years," he told reporters.

Mr Thakur is one of the three former ministers -- along with Smriti Irani and Narayan Rane -- who may not take oath today as part of the Modi 3.0 cabinet, sources have said.

Unlike Ms Irani, both Mr Thakur and Mr Rane have won the general election from their constituencies. Mr Thakur won from Himachal Pradesh's Hamirpur and Mr Rane from Maharashtra's Ratnagiri-Sindhudurg. In a post on X, formerly Twitter, Mr Thakur has bid goodbye to the Modi 2.0 cabinet, which was dissolved after the election results came in on Tuesday.

"As I bid adieu to this amazing team, I am reminded that it is the dedication of each member that truly holds the strength. A great team can indeed move mountains," his post read.

Expressing his gratitude to PM Modi, he added, "Thank you to my wonderful team for making these years so memorable. Your invaluable contributions have played a crucial role in the Viksit Bharat even in the summers - is between 980 and 1030 cusecs. Data for the last 5 years is enclosed along with this letter. However in the last one week this has seen a drastic reduction," she emphasised in her letter.

She further highlighted that there are seven Water Treatment Plants (WTPs) in Delhi that are dependent upon Yamuna water. "Due to the deficit of raw water, our water treatment plants are unable to run at their optimum capacity. With the water from Munak Canal reducing to 840 cusecs, Delhi will be unable to produce adequate water from our 7 WTPs. If Haryana doesn't release the adequate amount of water by today, Delhi will have a major crisis in next 1-2 days. Therefore, I humbly request you to ensure that 1050 cusecs water is released from Munak Canal for Delhi," she wrote.

Meanwhile, residents of Delhi continue to face severe water crises as long lines of people around water tankers are seen in many areas of the national capital. With piped water being disrupted, in several areas of the city water is being supplied to the people through tankers.

Visuals from Mayur Vihar and Okhla Phase 2 showed residents huddling around water tankers with buckets and cans in their hands to carry water. Delhi government blamed the water crisis on the Haryana government "blocking" Delhi's share of water.

the national capital have been suffering unjustifiably," wrote Atishi.

Highlighting the agreement in the 53rd meeting of the Upper Yamuna River Board, which was convened on May 2018, around 1050 Cusec (i.e. 568 MGD) allocated to Delhi at Munak through CLC and DSB Canals, she wrote, "Considering the transmission loss, the allocation of 1050

Sand Sculpture Of PM Modi In Odisha Ahead Of Swearing-In Ceremony

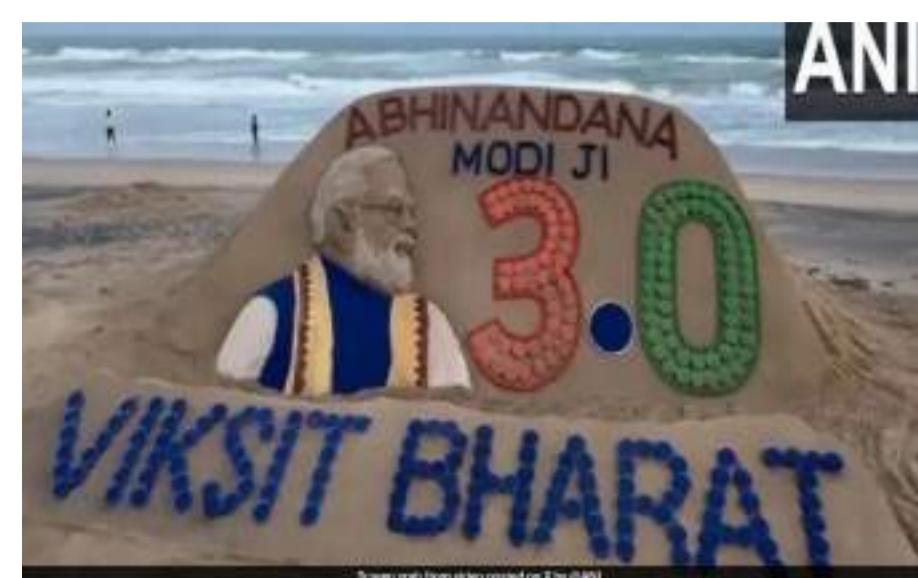

Puri(KCN): Renowned sand artist Sudarsan Pattnaik crafted a sand sculpture to congratulate PM-designate Narendra Modi at a seashore in Odisha's Puri, ahead of his swearing-in ceremony, which is scheduled to take place today at 7:15 pm. The intricate sand art, created at the Puri beach, features a detailed image of Narendra Modi along with the message "A B H I N A N D A N MODI JI 3.0".

Accompanying this congratulatory note, Mr Pattnaik also inscribed "VIKSIT BHARAT" below the artwork. Posters featuring PM-designate Narendra Modi have been put up in Delhi ahead of his swearing-in ceremony scheduled to take place today. The ceremony will mark the commencement of PM Modi's third consecutive term as the Prime Minister of India.

Under PM Modi's leadership, the NDA is set to form the government at the Centre once again.

PM Modi is the only leader after former Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru, who has been elected for a third consecutive term after completing the full tenure of each previous term. Alongside Narendra PM Modi, members of his council of ministers will also take their oath on the same day. Around 1,100 traffic police personnel of the Delhi Police have been deployed and an advisory has been issued to the public for the traffic movement and route arrangements have been made for the delegates as part of the arrangements for Prime Minister-designate Narendra Modi's oath ceremony on Sunday. Several leaders and State heads of neighbourhood region and Indian Ocean region have been invited for PM Modi's swearing-in ceremony as distinguished guests, a testament to India's 'Neighbourhood First' policy. The Ministry of External Affairs (MEA) in an official statement on Saturday said, "President of Sri Lanka, Ranil Wickremesinghe; President of Maldives, Mohamed Muizzu; Vice-President of Seychelles, Ahmed Afif; Prime Minister of Bangladesh, Sheikh Hasina; Prime Minister of Mauritius, Pravind Kumar Jugnauth; Prime Minister of Nepal, Pushpa Kamal Dahal 'Prachanda'; and Prime Minister of Bhutan, Tshering Tobgay, have accepted the invitation to attend." Apart from the leaders and state heads, more than 250 workers who were involved in the construction of the Parliament will also come to BJP leader Mansukh Mandaviya's residence at 3 pm and go to the President's house to participate in the oath-taking ceremony of Prime Minister-designate Narendra Modi. Meanwhile, highlighting the significance of the event, the MEA emphasised, "The visit of the leaders to attend the swearing-in ceremony of Prime Minister Narendra Modi for his third consecutive term is in keeping with the highest priority accorded by India to its 'Neighbourhood First' policy and 'SAGAR' vision."

Additionally, the MEA

mentioned that besides participating in the swearing-in ceremony, the leaders will also grace a banquet hosted by President Droupadi Murmu at Rashtrapati Bhavan, later in the same evening. PM Modi's invitation to neighbouring leaders reflects India's ongoing efforts to engage with countries in the region. In 2014, he convened leaders from SAARC nations, and in 2019, he invited countries from the BIMSTEC group. Meanwhile, Congress leader KC Venugopal said that the opposition leaders have not received any information from the government regarding the swearing-in ceremony of PM-designate Narendra Modi.

The BJP got 240 seats and NDA has secured 292 seats out of 543 Lok Sabha seats. Congress fought the election as part of the INDIA bloc and the parties together were able to prevent BJP from getting a majority on its own in Lok Sabha.

The Congress secured 99 seats. Samajwadi Party got 37 seats, while Trinamool Congress got 29. DMK managed to win 22 seats.

We failed to build a strong narrative: BJD leader Pradeep Majhi on poll defeat

New Delhi: At a time when starting from BJD president Naveen Patnaik and other leaders are searching for the faults that caused the party's poll debacle, party leader Pradeep Majhi, who was fielded from the Nabarangpur Lok Sabha seat, opened up about what caused such a drubbing. During a discussion with OTV's Swadhin Rout, Majhi revealed that BJD failed to build a strong narrative that could resonate with the people of Odisha.

"We were not as offensive against the BJP as we were in 2009, 2014 and 2019. It sent out a message that the BJD was not able to shout slogans against the BJP to send its candidates to the Parliament. On the other hand, the BJP carried out an issue-based political campaign in Odisha starting from the Prime Minister to other senior leaders. And their attack was so forceful that we failed to defend," said Majhi. When asked about the dominance by VK Pandian, he said, "In the election, an Opposition party fights elections by levelling several allegations against the ruling party. In this case, we had to prepare with counters. Those who were in charge should have prepared a different narrative. Once upon a time, Congress had strong leaders. Now, BJD has such leaders. But they couldn't be seen on the dais. If they had fought unitedly, the picture would have been different now." Regarding the absence of BJD's 38-star campaigners on the field, Majhi said, "The Chief Minister did meetings what was expected from him. Had the star campaigners travelled across Odisha, the situation would have been different now. But that didn't happen and we had to face a debacle.

CFA Institute in India Expands Student Accessibility with a New Exam Center in Bhubaneswar

Bhubaneswar : CFA Institute, the professional body for excellence and thought leadership in finance, has opened registrations for their upcoming February 2023 intake. Additionally, with the rising demand to increase candidate accessibility and convenience, the institute will have 4 new exam centers in Kochi, Chandigarh, Bhubaneswar and Guwahati for the CFA Program. These centers will take the total number of test center cities for the CFA exam to 16 across India and over 400 worldwide.

The recent CFA Institute Investor Trust survey showed that Indians place a high level of trust on the potential growth in job opportunities in the financial services sector. However, in the post-pandemic era, students as well as professionals are prioritizing safety, accessibility and ease of travel while accomplishing their life and career goals. Ease of accessibility to exam centers is expected to improve a candidate journey through the program and reduce costs associated with travelling to take exams.

The CFA Charter continues to be the global gold standard for professionals aspiring to work in the investment management industry. We constantly work to make the CFA Program affordable, accessible, meritocratic and relevant. During the pandemic we moved our examinations to Computer Based Testing from Paper Based Exams and started offering examinations four times in a year. By expanding our test

ATLAS OF AFFLUENCE - INDIA'S FIRST EVER WHITE PAPER ON LUXURY LAUNCHED AS A YEARLY

FEATURE

Mumbai: Amidst leading luminaries of industries spanning across the business of luxury, the Atlas of Affluence (AOA) 2022 has been launched in Mumbai. Created by The Voice of Fashion (TVOF), a division of Reliance Brands Limited, the daily digital magazine that tracks and leads conversations on Indian fashion, design, crafts and retail, AOA 2022, is the first such wide and deep white paper from India that dissects consumer behaviour studied through the prism of luxury. A collective reflection on what affluence means in India spiked during the two years of the pandemic. Charting the post-pandemic market and the clearly altered consumer mindset through a specially commissioned study across six cities and markets of India, AOA 2022 has been published as a book with exclusively commissioned artworks. This study uses the time graph of "pre-pandemic" and "post-pandemic" months to specify a comparative matrix. It also helps debunk long-held ideas about what affluence and luxury have meant to Indians.

Through this unique showcase of Pride encompassing diverse talent across creative fields, Blenders Pride Fashion Nights 2022, encourages everyone, especially youth at large to celebrate & take pride in their authentic and individual journeys. Blenders Pride Fashion Nights arrives in Bhubaneswar Bhubaneswar : Blenders Pride Fashion Nights, a unique travelling experiential property, arrived in the City of Temples – Bhubaneswar – celebrating the authentic spirit of the city through fashion and style. A spirit that echoes with Pride and inspires the creators of today to become icons of tomorrow. Bhubaneswar's 'Made of Artistic Flair' edition for Blenders Pride Fashion Nights, brought together an eclectic evening that blended fashion, culture and dance, celebrating a symbolic amalgamation of homegrown artistry and the unwavering spirit of local talent.

Exemplifying the region's signature weave through a curated evening at the majestic Vivanta, Bhubaneswar, DC Square was Odia designer Sabyasachi Satpathy, whose intricately crafted ensembles drew inspiration from the multicultural city and its colourful history. In a true celebration of Odisha's distinct and masterful craftsmanship, the show was elevated with a captivating performance by the Prince Dance Group – from the small Odisha town of Berhampur – widely lauded for their artistry. The show drew to a finale with none other than actor Diana Penty, who captivated the audience in a beautiful ensemble by the designer. The "Made of Artistic Flair" edition of Blenders Pride Fashion Nights was a beautiful embodiment of the rich craft and cultural heritage of the city in a modern and contemporary setting.

Taking us on a 'Jatra' – The Journey of a Young Woman – the show encapsulated the journey of a woman from post adolescence to her nuptials, navigating the various challenges, trials and significant moments that come her way. The enigmatic journey was captured through the array of colours and textiles that Odisha Bandha/Ikkat offers. Truly encapsulating the spirit of 'Made of Pride', the designer made use of Odisha weave, which is sustainable, hand-woven, organic and a homegrown initiative of design, painstakingly woven by the weavers of Odisha. The upbeat set was a composition designed to narrate the spirit of Bhubaneswar along with the flair of the designer. The evening was attended by the city's A-listers & influencers. The fashion walk truly left the guests mesmerized and engaged.

Through this unique showcase of Pride encompassing diverse talent across creative fields, Blenders Pride Fashion Nights 2022, encourages everyone, especially youth at large to celebrate & take pride in their authentic and individual journeys. Jindal Stainless signs MoU with SCTEVT, Odisha to train future-ready stainless steel professionals

Bhubaneswar: Odisha's State Council for Technical Education & Vocational Training (SCTEVT) today signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Jindal Stainless to promote technical education in the field of stainless steel and its various applications. Under this MoU, stainless steel courses will be introduced in all the Polytechnic colleges in Odisha from June 2022. The MoU was signed by Vice Chairman, Upadhyay, and General Manager, Sales & Distribution, Mr. Ranit Rana.

Commending the development, Chairman, SCTEVT and Principal Secretary to Government, SDTE and Industries Departments, Shri Hemant Sharma (IAS) said, "This collaboration with Jindal Stainless will enhance the learning experience for students and faculty both, as it will give them insights about and practical exposure to the stainless steel industry."

Fuming Wade adds extra fang to Australia

New Delhi: "It doesn't take much to fire Wade up," said Adam Zampa, who produced the most telling bowling contribution in Australia's 36-run victory over rivals England in their T20 World Cup clash in Barbados.

The temperamental Australia keeper-bat wasn't a central figure in his team's victory, scoring only 17* and not effecting any dismissals behind the stumps, but was riled up enough by on-field matters to rouse his teammates to lift their games further. While batting in the first innings, Wade was incensed after seemingly pulling out from facing up to an Adil Rashid delivery. He belatedly blocked the ball after having stepped aside and that was enough for umpire Nitin Menon to not declare a dead ball.

After remonstrating with the umpires, Wade was involved in a heated exchange with Jos Buttler, England's captain-keeper. After the game, Travis Head said that Wade had heard music continue to play over the loudspeakers as Rashid stepped up to bowl.

"It's very rare for him to block the next one, especially Wadey," said Head. "I think he didn't really have intention [to face the ball] - it followed him, he blocked it, Wadey just asked the question. Wadey obviously felt it went one way and Jos at the time felt it went the other.

In the press conference, Zampa added: "I think he felt like that it was the same basically as letting it hit him in the leg on a dead ball. But it doesn't take much to fire Wadey up."

Buttler offered his side of the exchange in the post-match press conference. "I think he pulled away and then played it, so I think the umpire was like, 'Well, you sort of played it', but he said he pulled away," the England captain said. "And to be honest, I was thinking about many other things at that point. Whether I should have said, 'I don't know if he pulled away and let's just carry on'. But the umpire seemed to be like, 'Well, because he played it, it's a dot ball'.

"I can't speak for him, whether he looked up late, but he seemed ready and then pulled out very late and I think that's what the umpire was saying," he added.

The incident seemed to have lit a fuse under

Wade as Australia went about trying to defend their highest-ever total at a T20 World Cup. Buttler and his opening partner Phil Salt blazed away 73 runs in the first seven overs before Wade roused Zampa into action and the legspinner, dismissed both the set batters, paving the path for Australia's ultimately comfortable win. "Wadey is a fiery guy, super competitive - and something ticked him over a little bit today and that's what we love about Wadey," Zampa said. "I think after the six or seventh over mark he came up to me and said, 'Let's not sit back here, let's go. We can't wait for them to make the mistake because they're not going to'. Basically stay in the contest.

"That's the beautiful thing about Wadey, having him behind the stumps - so competitive, you hear his voice and that makes a huge difference. If you've got a wicketkeeper who is quiet, whose body language is the opposite of someone like Wadey, you can feel that as well."

In contrast, Zampa reckoned the defending T20 champions were under the pump from the outset and it showed in their body language. Jos Buttler's match-up-informed decision to bowl two off-spinners - Moeen Ali and Will Jacks - in the PowerPlay backfire as Head and David Warner, Australia's openers, plundered 74 in the PowerPlay.

"I think they were under the pump and it showed," Zampa said. "It's so hard to bowl it in the Powerplay, and if your bowlers aren't summing up the conditions quickly it can get frustrating.

"Heady and Davey took advantage of it. We try not to be like that. We speak about it a bit. Our leadership isn't like that. It's 'Cummo' (Cummins, the Test and ODI captain), 'Bison' (Marsh) who are very calm. That helps us, as bowlers as well."

Akeal Hosein blows away Uganda

New Delhi: Akeal Hosein flummoxed Uganda batters with arm balls on his way to his best-ever T20 figures of 5 for 11 as West Indies recorded a thumping 134-run win over Uganda. The debutant side at the showpiece event were brought crashing down after their highs of their first-ever World Cup win - over PNG - from three days ago. Uganda were bundled out for 39 - the joint-lowest total in men's T20 World Cup history. This win gives West Indies a crucial NRR boost as they attempt to match Afghanistan's gallop in Group C. The result is also a dent on New Zealand's Super-Eights aspirations, who have lost the only game they've played so far and have a severely negative NRR.

PowerPlay. Hosein started the Uganda procession, picking a wicket each in his three overs in the PowerPlay. Romario Shepherd and Andre Russell caused some damage too, to leave Uganda five down by the end of the PowerPlay and with no real way back from there. The hosts got going with a 15-run third over where the two openers Johnson Charles and Brandon King combined to hit three fours off medium-pacer Juma Miyagi. Charles enjoyed a reprieve in the following over when he was dropped at mid-on but his batting partner didn't have such luck. Alpesh Ramjani conceded 12 but also got rid of the opener, beating him on the inside edge with a quick one that crashed the stumps. Nicholas Pooran however, came out swinging and West Indies finished the phase with a sizeable score.

Uganda's celebrated veteran spinner Frank Nsubuga arrived to bowl in tandem with his captain Brian Masaba in an attempt to slow things down. Charles and Pooran took 10 off Nsubuga's first over but only 11 came from the next two bowled by the spinners before Pooran perished while attempting to break away. Rovman Powell too came out swinging and stamped his authority in the 15-run 11th over that took West Indies to triple figures. Masaba however, kept turning to spin in search of breakthroughs and found another through

Uganda grew in confidence with the ball and didn't concede a single six in this period, but their attempt to close out the innings well was sullied by an 18-run last over. Masaba started the proceedings in this period with an exceptional over where only four runs were given away while also dismissing Powell. That brought Andre Russell to the crease but Uganda did well to keep him at bay... until the final over. Rovman Powell went back to his spinner for a third over in the PowerPlay and earned more rewards. Hosein returned to dismiss Sherfane Rutherford in the 18th over and Juma Miyagi gave away just 7 in the 19th. Kyewuta's attempts to bowl full and wide to Russell in the final over were sound but Uganda lacked luck.

each of these three wickets were two more - one for Romario Shepherd as he had Simon Ssesazi caught at mid-on, and one for Russell, who got a length ball seam away and hit the top of off-stump of Robinson Obuya.

As expected, Powell bowled out Hosein in a row and came away with two more wickets. Hosein, who'd shown his mastery with the arm ball until this point, cleaned up the left-handed Dinesh Nakrani with a classical left-arm spinner's delivery by breaching the bat-pad gap with generous turn. He completed his fifer a couple of balls later with yet another arm ball that trapped Kenneth Waiswa leg before. Hosein's bowling figures of 5 for 11 are the best ever by a West Indian in T20 World Cup history, surpassing Samuel Badree's 4-15 against Bangladesh in 2014. Every batter who departed went for single-digit scores as Uganda fell away in 12 overs, with Alzarri Joseph (2-6) and Gudakesh Motie (1-6) mopping up the tail quickly.

New Delhi: The window for next year's Champions Trophy has been identified, and Cricbuzz can reveal that it will take place between February 19 and March 9. Multiple sources from multiple boards and the International Cricket Council (ICC) connected to the 50-over championship have confirmed this 20-day period allocated for the eight-team tournament, which will be held for the first time since 2017. In the last edition, Pakistan won the trophy, beating India in the final at The Oval. While the exact match days for the Champions Trophy 2025 have not yet been finalized, the schedule will be fitted within this 20-day period. Initially, it was thought that the tournament would start on a Friday and conclude on a Sunday. According to the disclosed window, however, February 19 is a Wednesday and March 9 is a Sunday. The 2017 edition had a 19-day window, with the tournament starting on a Thursday (June 1) and concluding on a Sunday (June 18). The tentative dates of the Champions Trophy have apparently been shared with the member boards so that they can adjust their league schedules accordingly. The IL T20 had announced that its third edition will run from January 11 to February 9, almost the same window in which the SA20 will hold its third season. According to a recent SA20 release, the season will kick off on January 9 and will run till February 8.

It is still unclear whether all the Champions Trophy matches will be played in Pakistan. With the BJP government returning to power in India, the current policy towards Pakistan is expected to continue, although no official statement has been made yet. If the same policy continues, the hybrid model used for last year's Asia Cup could apply, meaning part of the competition could be held in the UAE.

However, sources say it is too early to determine whether or not the Indian team will visit Pakistan. "We will have some idea in the next two months," said an informed source. Clarity is expected by the ICC annual conference in Colombo in July. By then, the Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI) is expected to have a better understanding of the government's policy towards the tournament. Cricbuzz had earlier reported that the PCB earmarked Lahore as the sole venue for the India games so that the Indian team will not have to travel to many places and the fans can easily cross over to Lahore through the Wagah border.

Zampa, Cummins deliver dominant win for Australia

New Delhi: A collective show from Australia, both with bat and ball, helped them secure a comfortable victory against England in Bridgetown, Barbados on Saturday (June 8). Despite not a single half-century score in Australia's innings, quick-fire 30s from the openers and useful knocks from the batters down the order helped them post a formidable 201/7. England started well in the chase but couldn't maintain the intensity after Adam Zampa removed the openers as they were restricted to 165/6. Pat Cummins, who replaced Nathan Ellis for this game, also made an impact with figures of 2-23. After a powerful start, Australia capitalised on it through the Marsh-Maxwell association that helped their progress well in the middle overs. In contrast, England weren't able to build a partnership during this phase, with Zampa and Co. providing timely strikes, and had too much ground to cover in the back end of their innings, leaving them winless after two matches. With two left-handers at the crease, England chose to open with Moeen Ali's offspin, and he conceded only three runs in the first over, keeping Travis Head in check. However, the introduction of Will Jacks from the other end proved costly. Head smashed two consecutive sixes over midwicket, while David Warner swept him fine for a maximum, resulting in Jacks conceding 22 runs. Jofra Archer bowled the third over efficiently, not allowing any boundaries, but Mark Wood's following over was expensive. Warner hammered three sixes and a four to the leg side, adding 22 runs and pushing Australia past 50. In the next over, Head targeted Moeen, hitting a four and a six off successive deliveries, and Warner also struck a boundary before being bowled by one that stayed low. Archer then responded to being hit for a four by Head by dismissing the opener with a well-executed slower ball. The scoring rate dipped slightly, but Mitchell Marsh and Glenn Maxwell ensured the boundaries kept flowing, particularly targeting Adil Rashid, who conceded 20 runs in his first two overs. Having brought up the quickest fifty and the highest powerplay score in this World Cup, Australia also reached the fastest 100, getting there in 9.3 overs. Archer was doing a tidy job, keeping Australia in check with his change of pace, but Marsh managed a six over midwicket when he offered some pace. Chris Jordan started economically with a five-run over, but Maxwell hit him for a six maximum by going over extra cover off Jordan. David as also put down over, and Marsh also added a boundary in an 18-run over. The partnership between Marsh and Maxwell reached 65 runs before the former was stumped off Liam Livingstone in the 14th over. Maxwell fell shortly after, pulling Rashid straight to deep midwicket. In the same over, Marcus Stoinis got going with a one-handed sweep shot for a six. Stoinis got his second six by slamming Livingstone straight down the ground and Tim David hit his first maximum by going over extra cover off Jordan. David as also put down

Cummins was run out and Wade got only a single off the last ball as Jordan conceded only eight runs. Despite being hit for a four by Phil Salt, Mitchell Starc gave away only six runs in the opening over. Jos Buttler got his first runs by coming down the track and slashing a Hazlewood delivery past point for a four and struck another four through the midwicket region. Salt struck a 106-metre six off Starc over midwicket for the first maximum of England's innings and Buttler ended the over with his third boundary.
