

BJP ready to fight on all assembly, LS seats in Odisha; no talks on alliance: Lata Usendi

BHUBANESWAR(KCN): Amidst the speculation and confusion about whether there will be any alliance with the ruling Biju Janata Dal (BJD), Bharatiya Janata Party's (BJP), co-in-charge for elections in Odisha Lata Usendi on Sunday added to the ongoing ambiguity. While talking to reporters, Lata said that such speculation is going on only in the media. "We are ready to fight on all seats, be it assembly or Lok Sabha in Odisha and discussion was held on each seat in Delhi. A crucial meeting with party office bearers in Odisha will be held today," said Lata. When asked whether the BJP doesn't want an alliance with BJD, Lata said, "We are ready for all seats and no talks have been held."

On Saturday, BJP's election in-charge for Odisha Vijaypal Singh Tomar categorically stated that no BJD leader met him. Earlier, it was said that two BJD leaders- 5T chairperson VK Pandian and BJD organizational secretary Pranab Prakash Das visited New Delhi in a special flight on Thursday evening, reportedly to carry forward the discussions with the BJP on the modalities of a coalition.

Improvised hand grenades, Naxal articles recovered after exchange of fire in Kandhamal

PHULBANI(KCN): SOG jawans have managed to recover several explosives belonging to the Naxals including some improvised hand grenades and gelatin sticks in Kandhamal district.

As per reports, an anti-naxal operation was launched on March 6 by the SOG jawans in the Durgapanga reserve forest area under Kotagarh and Belghar police limits in Kandhamal district.

On Saturday, the Naxals opened fire on the security forces when they were operating near the Bhalugurh, Sukarapadar, and Dimili areas. The Maoists also lobbed grenades upon the police team as they were in an advantageous position. After taking cover, police asked the ultras to surrender and retaliated by firing in a controlled manner. The Maoists subsequently fled the

Azamgarh is now 'Ajanmagarh': PM Modi

Azamgarh(KCN): Azamgarh will now be known as 'Ajanmagarh', Prime Minister Narendra Modi said on Sunday while announcing several developmental projects valued at more than Rs 3,700 crore.

The Prime Minister said: "You can see that in the past few days, I am inaugurating several projects across the country. When people hear about several airports, railway stations, IIMs and AIIMS they get surprised. And many think that this is because of election season. People in previous governments used to make announcements to deceive people. Announcements were made 30-35 years ago. They used to put up a plaque before elections and disappear after that. The leaders also used to disappear."

He said that now the country can see that "Modi doosri mitti ka insaan hai."

"The foundation stones we laid in 2019 were not for elections and have inaugurated all those projects. Even now, no one should see it as an election stunt. This is the campaign of my journey for development. I am running the country with full-speed to fulfil the dream of making India 'Viksit' by 2047."

He said that today he has given another guarantee to the people of Azamgarh. "Azamgarh will be the bastion of development for eternity," PM Modi said. The Prime Minister lauded the change of law-and-order in the town, saying that the region is witnessing a rapid development.

"Azamgarh was known for mafias. But after our government took over, the region is witnessing law and order along with rapid development. The poison of appeasement is weakening in Uttar Pradesh. The dynasts are abusing Modi daily. They are saying that Modi does not have a family. But they forgot that the entire country is Modi's family," PM Modi said.

He said that his government was strengthening the tier 2 and 3 cities to boost urbanisation and smaller towns and rural areas are also witnessing fast urbanisation.

PM Modi said that the Purvanchal region had suffered backwardness for long but now the region has its airports. "Its youth have new opportunities and careers before them," PM Modi said.

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath said that Azamgarh was earlier a bastion of mafia activities during the previous governments but today the town has been given modern infrastructure.

"What was the identity of Azamgarh 10 years back? It was a bastion of criminals and mafia activities. However, today PM Modi has come and showered us with various developmental projects. We are thankful to PM Modi for this," the Chief Minister said. Earlier, the Prime Minister inaugurated numerous development initiatives and in a significant boost to the civil aviation sector, the Prime Minister also initiated the groundwork for multiple airport projects nationwide.

Additionally, he unveiled 12 new Terminal Buildings at airports including Pune, Kolhapur, Gwalior, Jabalpur, Delhi, Lucknow, Aligarh, Azamgarh, Chitrakoot, Moradabad, Shravasti, and Adampur.

He also laid the foundation stones for three new Terminal

Buildings at Kadapa, Hubballi, and Belagavi Airports.

The Prime Minister also inaugurated the Light House Project (LHP), which has facilitated the construction of over 2000 affordable flats with modern amenities.

The Prime Minister dedicated 744 rural road projects valued at more than Rs 3,700 crore, constructed under the Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana to the nation. These projects encompass a cumulative length of over 5,400 kilometres of rural roads in Uttar Pradesh, benefiting approximately 59 districts in the state.

Unnikrishna Panicker v. CIT [2014] 361 ITR 187 (Ker.).

14. Whether outstanding fees received by an assessee who was an advocate at the time of billing but left the profession and became

Judge at the time of receipt of such outstanding fee, whether such receipt is assessable as income: As per section 176(4) an income received after the cessation of profession is taxable in the year of receipt. However Calcutta High Court in the case of Commissioner of Income-tax v. Datta (R.M.) (Justice) [1989] 180 ITR 0086 (Cal) held as under:

The subject is not to be taxed unless the charging provision clearly imposes the obligation. If the words of a statute are precise and unambiguous, they must be accepted as declaring the express intention of the Legislature.

Section 176(4) of the Income-tax Act, 1961, creates two fictions. The first fiction is that any sum received after the discontinuance of the profession shall be deemed to be the income of the recipient. The second fiction is that the said income shall be charged to tax in the year of receipt if such sum would have been included in the total income of the person had it been received before such discontinuance. The legislative intention indicated by the express language of section 176(4) of the Act does not warrant any assumption of a further fiction treating the receipts as income chargeable under the head "Profits and gains of business, profession or vocation". Hence, the profits and gains of a profession received in a subsequent year after the discontinuance of the profession cannot be taxed under section 176(4).

The view of the Calcutta High Court has been followed by the Delhi ITAT in the case of ITO v. Justice Rajiv [2013] 36 CCH 532 Del Trib: [2014] 147 ITD 575 (Delhi).

Apex Court under 1922 Act in the case of CIT v. K.N. Guruswamy v. Intervener [1965] 055 ITR 0741 (SC) had held that income received after the cessation of profession is not taxable if the assessee maintains books of accounts on cash basis.

In this connection it may be mentioned that under 1922 Act there was no provision similar to Section 176(4).

Dear Sir,Ban packaging of hot food in plastic bags

Despite the ban on plastic bags and compostable plastic bags for carrying or dispensing commodities across the country, they are still extensively used, especially for packaging food in hotels. Items like tea, coffee, milk, sambar, rasam, and hot curry are commonly packed in plastic bags within hotels. Many doctors cite a worry that there is an increase in the number of people suffering from kidney and throat ailments, cancer, and infertility in the city due to the consumption of hot food items carried in low-quality plastic bags or boxes. When hot food or liquid is packed in a plastic bag, toxic chemicals like styrene and bisphenol can leach into the food, potentially leading to cancer, heart diseases, and other reproductive problems. Therefore, the Department of Food Safety must enforce a ban on packing hot edible items, including beverages, in plastic bags and harmful containers, particularly in cities. Hoteliers and owners of tea and coffee shops should be instructed not to use plastic bags or containers for packing hot edible items. Additionally, traders should prominently display announcements in their business establishments, urging customers to bring their own vessels for purchasing any edible items.

Sir

The first list of candidates belonging to various parties for the upcoming election has come out and the great Indian political war cry has begun. The list released by the various parties- major and minor has a mixture of candidates- stalwarts, sitting MPs and freshers. When it comes to sitting MPs the reason for them being chosen to contest maybe due to their popularity, the support they get and factors like caste and religion - which play vital role in the Indian political scenario. Again when it comes to sitting MPs except for a few who deliver something for their constituency most of them never even pay attention to the people's issues. Their sole aim being get elected, utilise privileges offered and execute political agendas for their selfish motives. The trust, faith and belief reposed on them by the people are just ignored and disregarded.

Such individuals who pose to be 'people's representatives' but turn out useless and unproductive should never be given a chance to script and continue with the same old story!

India has a rich history of women scientists who have made significant contributions to the field of science. However, despite the progress made in recent years, women in science still face numerous challenges and barriers in India. According to a report by the National Science Foundation, women make up only 14% of the total workforce in STEM fields in India. Furthermore, a study conducted by UNESCO found that only 35% of STEM students in higher education in India are women.

Despite these challenges, there are many inspiring women and girls in science who have overcome obstacles and achieved remarkable success in STEM fields.

"Mamata Banerjee Fears PM Will Be Upset": Congress After Ally Breaks Ranks

Kolkata (KCN): Mamata Banerjee's Trinamool Congress today announced candidates for all 42 Lok Sabha seats in Bengal, snubbing Congress which had just days earlier said that "doors are still open" for seat-sharing talks for the upcoming elections. The Congress and Trinamool are part of the INDIA bloc - an alliance of opposition parties that had come together to challenge the BJP in the upcoming elections. The snub today is in line with Mamata Banerjee's declaration that only her party can challenge the BJP in Bengal. The breakdown in talks with Congress over seats was another reason. The Congress hit back soon after Trinamool released the list.

"The Indian National Congress has repeatedly declared its desire to have a respectable seat-sharing agreement with the TMC in West Bengal. The Indian National Congress has always maintained that such an agreement has to be finalised through negotiations and not by unilateral announcements," Congress leader Jairam Ramesh said on X (formerly Twitter). "The Indian National Congress has always wanted the INDIA group to fight the BJP together," he added. Congress leader in Lok Sabha Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury launched a fierce attack on the Chief Minister, accusing her of sending a message to the PMO by not including Congress in the seat-sharing agreement. "Mamata Banerjee has proven today that none of the political parties of India should trust a leader like her... Mamata Banerjee is in fear that if she continues to be in the INDIA alliance, PM Modi will be unhappy. By separating herself from the INDIA alliance, she has sent a message to the PMO, don't be unhappy with me, I am not standing to fight against the BJP," said Mr Chowdhury. In its list of candidates for the Lok Sabha polls, Trinamool Congress dropped at least eight sitting MPs and brought in several new faces such as former cricketers Yusuf Pathan and Kirti Azad. Cricketer Yusuf Pathan will contest from the Baharampur Lok Sabha seat, a seat which Congress leader Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury has won five times. Fielding a popular figure from Mr Chowdhury's stronghold is also being seen as Trinamool's response to his repeated attacks on the party.

From the Basirhat Lok

Sabha seat, where Sandeshkhali is situated, Trinamool fielded its former MP Haji Nurul Islam by dropping sitting MP Nusrat Jahan. The Trinamool also renominated expelled Lok Sabha MP Mahua Moitra from Krishnanagar seat for the second consecutive term. Congress and the Trinamool had been trying to figure out a seat-sharing arrangement in Bengal for months, but TMC walked off the table every time the grand old party demanded for than 3 seats in the state.

Hyderabad (KCN): Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister Jagan Mohan Reddy, peeved with the alliance between the BJP and Chandrababu Naidu's TDP and Jana Sena Party, today said Mr Naidu's cycle is "rusted" and so he is seeking support from other parties.

At a public gathering today, Mr Reddy said his government in Andhra Pradesh has focused on the welfare of weaker sections. "The TDP cycle chain in the state is not running smoothly, prompting his visit to Delhi with his foster son to seek support from central parties. Elections are ahead. We are ready to fight against the alliance. YSRCP will stand with weaker sections," he said.

The BJP, keen to find a toehold in southern states other than Karnataka, has been seeking alliances with local parties. While its efforts are yet to bear fruit in Tamil Nadu or Kerala, it has managed to find two allies in NDA.

PM Modi To Chair Key Meet To Appoint 2 Election Commissioners On March 15

New Delhi (KCN): Two election commissioners are likely to be appointed by March 15 to fill the vacancies created by the retirement of Anup Chandra Pandey and the surprise resignation of Arun Goel, sources said on Sunday.

Days before the poll panel is expected to announce the schedule for the Lok Sabha polls, Goel resigned on Friday morning. His resignation was accepted by President Droupadi Murmu on Saturday and the Law Ministry issued a notification to announce it.

This leaves Chief

Election Commissioner

Rajiv Kumar as the sole

member of the poll

authority.

Pandey had demitted office on February 14 on attaining the age of 65 years.

A search committee under Law Minister Arjun Ram Meghwal and comprising the Home Secretary and the Department of Personnel and Training (DoPT) Secretary will first prepare two separate panels of five names each for the two posts.

Later, a selection committee headed by the prime minister and comprising a Union minister and Leader of the Congress party in the Lok Sabha Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury will then name two persons for appointment as election commissioners.

The election commissioners will be appointed by the President. Sources said the selection committee could meet either on March 13 or 14 depending on the convenience of the members and the appointments are likely to be made by March 15.

Before a new law on the appointment of CEC and ECs came into force recently, the election commissioners were appointed by the President on the government's recommendation and as per custom, the senior-most was appointed as CEC.

Clause 2 of Article 324 of the Constitution states that the Election Commission shall consist of the Chief Election Commissioner and such number of other Election Commissioners, if any, as the President may from time to time fix. Responding to questions on reasons behind Goel's resignation, the

'Disappointed' Stokes takes solace in being 'beaten by better team'

New Delhi: At the start of the series, Ben Stokes called India a "beast" at home and it was something he referenced again after his side went down in the series by a 4-1 margin. The England captain said he was "disappointed" and took solace in the fact that they were "beaten by the better team".

"I'm very disappointed, not only in myself but I'm disappointed for the team because of how much hard work has gone into this tour itself," Stokes said. "If we we weren't disappointed, if we weren't frustrated at how the series has ended up, I don't really know what other emotions you could have."

"We came here with very high hopes and confidence about what we could achieve out here and it started off very well. But obviously losing the series 4-1, not just myself but the team is big enough to say we've been completely outplayed in the last four games," Stokes said in Dharamsala.

"The way I look at it is that the big games and moments, the team who seizes those opportunities and make those moments theirs are the team that are going to come out on top. Whenever we managed to wrestle back any type of momentum with the ball or bat, India were always able to then put it back on to us. That was where the Tests after the first one were won and lost. It's obviously very disappointing. I don't give too much away as the series is going on but I'm always man enough to say we got beaten by the better team."

Stokes acknowledged that India were true to their style of play, just like England were, and that the hosts were better over the course of a long five-Test series.

"There's been two styles of play from both teams. One thing India have done is stay true to what makes them successful. We have done that but not been able to execute how we'd like to. With the ball, we took two early wickets in that session, two blokes on a 100, but they managed to build a partnership that carried on the momentum that they had. We didn't manage to make another indent. "It's making sure we are staying true to ourselves as players and as a team. It's knowing that sometimes taking risks brings your downfall, but when there's a reason behind taking these risks that don't quite work out, that is fine. It is a tough game, cricket, and it can eat you up, but this tour in particular there is always one that can lead you astray or make you a better player. I have done a lot of India tours now. I am obviously disappointed with my performance for the team, but write this team off, write me off at your own peril."

Stokes said that this series defeat shouldn't take away from what he and Brendon McCullum achieved together in the past and reiterated faith in the methods England have adopted.

"I think we've done a lot of things right. We have continued the way in which we have gone about things, with how much success we have had. For us, this series shouldn't affect anything we've managed to achieve before this tour. It's the first time, particularly these last four games, that this team has been dominated pretty much the whole time. We will use this as inspiration to become a better team. We will use it as inspiration to become better players. That is the mentality that we have."

"The media name Bazball - everyone says "what is it?". In my opinion it's Bazball will hopefully inspire people to become better players and become even better than what we are."

True to his spirit, Stokes said that he is already looking forward to what's next and applying the learnings from this defeat when the time comes.

"Failure is a great teacher to sports teams," Stokes said. "You either let failure and disappointment eat you up and shoot you down, and you never seem to find a way back up. But you learn from failures and you make sure you don't lose the enthusiasm of what we do. We've got a massive summer coming up with six home Tests, Pakistan and New Zealand after that so we've got a lot more cricket to play in the next calendar year."

"Looking at the positives we can take away from this series are Zak and Ben Duckett showing that consistency that they did at the top of the order for us over the summer. I'm not sure what their record is like but it's up there with the best England openers. Shoaib Bashir and Tom Hartley have been outstanding; Tom having to take the responsibility of the lead spinner with Jack Leach's unfortunate injury and we've unearthed Shoaib Bashir. "The opportunities might not have come to him on this tour if Jack hadn't been injured but for someone with such inexperience to come in and make the impact that he has done, you can see what talent he possesses and it's great signs for all three formats for England. Rooty getting back into form that we know he's about over the last two games and just from a personal note, it's great to be back out bowling and being in the fight like that."

Had we handled the new ball better, it would've been a different game - Najmul

Dhaka: Bangladesh skipper Najmul Hossain said on Saturday that Nuwan Thushara's hat-trick changed the complexion of the game. The Sri Lankan pacer rattled Bangladesh's top order by dismissing Najmul (one), Tawhid Hridoy (0) and Mahmudullah (0) in successive deliveries in the fourth over of the run-chase, and his first of the innings.

In the process, he became the sixth bowler and second Sri Lankan to take a hat-trick against Bangladesh in this format. Sri Lanka won the series 2-1 as the hosts were beaten by 28 runs at the Sylhet International Cricket Stadium on the back of Thushara's brilliant bowling display. The right-arm pacer also removed Soumya Sarkar (11) and Shoriful Islam (4) to end the day with returns of 5 for 20. "I think so (that over changed the game) and he bowled really well and we must credit the bowler and yes we went behind in that one over," Najmul told reporters following the game.

"I think if we could've played that over well or handled the new ball in a better way, it would have been a different ball game," he said. "This doesn't always happen (such kind of an over) and I must credit the bowler the way he bowled and it was not easy. But in such a situation, how we can minimize the damage will be important for us.

"His action is different and normally we don't play such kind of action too often in the previous two matches we handled Patheerana well but initially along with that action there was swing as well but you have to accept these kinds of challenges at the international level and how we have to make a plan how we can play better cricket," he said. "I think he was getting some swing with that action and he didn't had lot of bounce the action is side-on action and as the ball was keeping low there was swing along with that," he said adding that there are lot of positives from the series. "There are a lot of positives like the way we made a comeback after losing a wicket in the opening game and in this match. The way bowler came back in the last four-five overs in today's match so there is a lot of positive sign and it will help in future," he said adding that he was impressed with Rishad's bowling as well as his batting. "I think he bowled according to the condition and batting wise it was required because we play with six genuine batsmen and there is an all-rounder so this kind of innings will be helpful in the future," he said. Nazmul added that playing in this kind of wickets will help them for the World Cup. "I think we should play T20 matches in these kind of wickets. The bowlers are learning that you have to bowl well in good wickets and batters understand how to chase 170-180-200 runs. This is good preparation before the World Cup," he concluded.

NEW DELHI: Harry Kane scored a hat-trick in Bayern Munich's 8-1 demolition of Mainz 05 on Saturday to set a Bundesliga record as the champions cut the gap on leaders Bayer Leverkusen to seven points. Kane, who joined this season for a league record 100 million euros from Tottenham Hotspur, became the first player to score at least twice in eight different games in his first Bundesliga season. "I trust him to do anything," Bayern coach Thomas Tuchel said when asked whether Kane could break the league record of 41 goals in one season. "He is a great personality, a great role model. A top player. It is an absolute gift to be able to train him. "It was the right decision to bring him here, he proves this week in week out," said Tuchel, who will leave at the end of the season. The England captain also netted twice in Tuesday's 3-0 win over Lazio which took Bayern into the Champions League quarter-finals.

Bayern are on 57 points in second place in the standings ahead of Leverkusen's home game against VfL Wolfsburg on Sunday. Kane opened his account in 13th minute, tapping in from close range with the Bavarians desperate to hang on to their slim title chances after a bad run with only one win in their last four league games. They added another through Leon Goretzka after Kane's effort bounced off the post seven minutes later. Mainz briefly cut the deficit with Nadiem Amiri's thundering free kick and the visitors were pushing hard for a second goal before Kane restored order in first-half stoppage time.

Harmanpreet turns on beast mode again to lead MI's charge

NEW DELHI: Harmanpreet Kaur didn't want to be distracted by all the commotion around her. She had a quick post-over catch-up with her batting partner, Amelia Kerr, removed her gloves, set them aside along with her bat by the pitch and kept herself occupied with some stretches and side-jumps. In a bizarre occurrence - and almost a comic relief for Gujarat Giants in hindsight - three of the on-ground water sprinklers had switched on unprovoked following the 18th over of Mumbai Indians' chase at the Arun Jaitley Stadium on Saturday. Beth Mooney, the Giants captain, didn't want to continue on a wet outfield, and rightly so. The super-soppers were then quickly summoned, forcing an eight-minute hold-up in proceedings. For MI, the break couldn't have come at a worse time. Harmanpreet, had just taken Sneh Rana to the cleaners and brought the equation down to a very manageable 23 off the final 12. The sequence of that overread: 4,0,6,4,4,6 as the MI captain set the stage ablaze. The unscheduled break threatened to wash away all of that momentum, quite literally.

Jhulan Goswami, the MI bowling coach, duly got all worked up. The incident was so unprecedented that Nat Sciver-Brunt couldn't help but laugh out loud. But Harmanpreet knows when to compartmentalise.

"Harman is different on game days," Sciver-Brunt said of her captain after her fiery 95 not out made MI first team through to the WPL 2024 knockouts. "When we're training or around the hotel, she's very relaxed, she's involved with the group, she's very social. And game-day she's a lot more focussed and probably just a bit more tunnel-visioned on what the task is.

"Also, when she bats, she's not often flustered about things. Like if she's not gotten off to a quick start, we're on the side going like 'oh could you get off strike a bit more?' But, as we saw today, she doesn't need to. She believes in herself and she believes in her ability, and she's played a very special knock today."

Despite a commendable comeback with the ball in death overs to restrict the last-placed Giants to 190/7, Harmanpreet walked off the field visibly miffed at the damage. By the time Harmanpreet arrived back in the middle, Mumbai's brisk start had been jolted by a couple of quick wickets in the space of six balls just after PowerPlay. And by no means did Harmanpreet look in the zone at the start. She somehow dug out a Meghna Singh yorker, was beaten on the outside edge by Shabnam Shakil on the first ball she faced from the WPL's youngest player, and her first confident stroke only came nine deliveries into her knock when she saw some width and cut fiercely through point for her first four.

Against Rana, she resorted to reverse-laps and found six quick runs but was equally hard on herself after missing putting away a full toss for more than just one. As such, Yastika Bhatia guided the tall chase amidst soaring asking-rate until Ash Gardner induced a top-edge and removed the set batter one short of the half-century.

With a confirmed knockouts berth on the line, the equation for MI needed some serious chasing: 91 required off 36 balls, a fresh batter in the middle - albeit their highest scorer of the season thus far - and their captain chugging along with a 21-ball 20 at the time.

That's before Harmanpreet flicked a switch and turned on the beast mode. Meghna came in the line of fire first, bowling too full and getting the punishment it deserved with a 19-run over that sounded warning bells.

Rana all but managed to get her India captain caught at the boundary ropes but it burst through Phoebe Litchfield's hands and the error cost GG 55 runs, two vital points and, in all likelihood, a shot at top-three finish.

Harmanpreet reached a 33-ball half-century in the 17th over, at the end of which the equation still was under the Giants' control. Rana, who had managed to keep both batters tied down for most of the 15th over if not for that costly drop, picked up the ball one final time with MI needing 47 off 18 balls now. However, Harmanpreet had managed to retain the strike and had her sights set on the shorter boundary on the off-side.
