

Mumbai hoarding crash toll mounts to 14

Mumbai(KCN): The death toll in the hoarding collapse incident in Mumbai has risen to 14 while 75 others are injured, civic officials Tuesday said as rescue and search operations continued a day after the tragedy.

Mumbai Police Commissioner Vivek Phansalkar assured strict action against those responsible for the incident, while the Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation (BMC) said it will take down the remaining billboards on the GRP land where the hoarding collapsed.

The 120 x 120 square feet illegal hoarding fell at a petrol pump in Ghatkopar area during dust storms and unseasonal rains that lashed Mumbai Monday.

Rescue teams were facing a challenge as they cannot use gasoline-powered cutter equipment and oxyfuel cutter which can result in a blast or fire as there is a petrol pump at the site, an official of the National Disaster Response Force (NDRF) said. At least 12 fire engines and other vehicles were involved in the search and rescue operation since the incident on Monday. Two NDRF teams, comprising 100 personnel, also joined the operation on Monday evening. Two heavy duty cranes and two hydra cranes were being used in the operation along with two earth-excavating machines and 25 ambulances, the civic official said. The NDRF teams used two cranes weighing 500 tonnes each to pull up the hoarding from both sides. After creating a gap of about 3.5 to 4 feet, the rescuers crouched into the tiny space to look for people trapped underneath, NDRF assistant commandant Nikhil Mudholkar said.

Two heavy duty cranes and

There's no 'lehar', only 'zehar' in PM's language: Jairam Ramesh

Bhubaneswar(KCN): Senior Congress leader Jairam Ramesh Tuesday claimed that there is no 'lehar' (wave) in favour of Prime Minister Narendra Modi but only 'zehar' (poison) in his language.

Addressing a press conference in Bhubaneswar, Jairam said that the language of the "outgoing" prime minister indicates he is "tensed and confused". "He (PM) has realised that farmers, youth, labourers, women and backward classes are upset with him. That's why he talks about Hindu-Muslim, Muslim League, black money given to Congress in temps and mangalsutra". There is no 'lehar' (wave) on the ground in favour of the PM but only 'zehar'

(poison) in his language. This indicates that time has arrived for a change," Ramesh claimed. In the past four phases of elections held in 379 Lok Sabha seats, it was clear that BJP became 'saaf' (clean) in south India and 'half' in north, west and east, he said, adding that INDIA bloc will get a majority in this election. The Congress is fighting this election to save the Constitution and democracy as 'dhantantra' (capitalism) is prevailing in the country, he said.

Stating that BJD and BJP are two sides of the same coin, the senior Congress leader alleged they are engaged in a "fake fight" in the ongoing Lok Sabha and Assembly elections in Odisha.

"The prime minister and the chief minister are indulged in a 'fake boxing' match. However, the reality is that the BJD had given full support to the BJP in Parliament during the last 10 years," Ramesh alleged.

The BJD MPs supported "anti-farmer, anti-tribal and anti-environment" Bills in the BJD supported the weakening of the Forest Rights Act, amendment in the Forest Conservation Act, Land Acquisition Act, and the Labour Code? "There is no difference between the BJP and BJD. Congress is the only alternative in Odisha that is fighting against the BJD-BJP 'alliance'. Voting for BJP is like voting for BJD and vice-versa," Ramesh alleged.

The Congress leader alleged that not a single penny has been spent on the development of Odisha during the Modi rule, while Rs 650 crore has been allocated for Sanskrit, whereas the Mammootty government had given classical language status to six languages including Odia.

With Rs 313.53 crore assets, BJP's Dilip Ray richest candidate in phase 2 Odisha Assembly polls

Bhubaneswar(KCN): BJP candidate and former union minister Dilip Ray, who declared possessing assets valued at Rs 313.53 crore, has emerged as the richest MLA in the fray for the second phase of Assembly elections in Odisha.

According to a report by the Association for Democratic Reforms (ADR) and Odisha Election Watch, 95 of the total 265 candidates in 35 Assembly segments going to polls May 20 are crorepati.

Among the candidates, Ray, who is contesting from Rourkela on BJP ticket, is the richest nominee with a total asset of Rs 313.53 crore.

In his affidavit submitted to the Election Commission, the former union minister declared that he owns movable properties worth Rs 260.03 crore and immovable assets of Rs 53.50 crore, the report said. Ray became eligible to contest elections after the Delhi High Court stayed his conviction in an alleged coal block allocation scam in Jharkhand in 1999 when he was the union minister of state with independent charge of coal ministry. Kalikesh Narayan Singh Deo, BJD's MLA candidate from Bolangir constituency, is the second richest candidate in the fray for the second phase poll with a total asset of Rs 73.66 crore. Chief Minister Naveen Patnaik, who is contesting from Kantabanji and Hinjili constituencies, is in third position with a total asset of Rs 71.07 crore, it said. The ADR report said that the average assets per candidate contesting in the Odisha Assembly elections (phase 2) is Rs 3.98 crore. Among major parties, the average asset per candidate for 35 BJD candidates is Rs 12.09 crore, 33 Congress nominees analysed is Rs 2.95 crore, 35 BJP candidates Rs 13.11 crore and 10 AAP candidates Rs 95.89 lakh. One independent candidate, Sohan Sipka, contesting from Kantabanji Constituency has declared zero assets. Three candidates with low assets are Pradipa Sahu (Rs 7,000) independently contesting from Boudh Assembly seat, Forward Bloc's Abhiram Dharua (Rs 8,592) from Kantabanji and independent nominee Satyanarayan Bohidar (Rs 11,000) from Titlagarh, the report said. Out of 265 candidates, 87 (33 per cent) candidates have declared criminal cases against themselves. At least 70 of them are facing serious criminal cases. The report said five candidates have declared cases related to murder, while 16 others are facing attempt to murder cases, and 11 are accused of crimes against women. Among the major parties, 28 (80 per cent) candidates from BJP, 17 (52 per cent) from Congress, nine (26 per cent) from BJD and four (40 per cent) out of 10 AAP candidates have declared criminal cases against themselves in their affidavits, it said. On education details of candidates, the report said that 130 nominees have declared their qualifications to be between 5th and 12th standard pass, while 122 candidates are graduates or above. Only 41 (15 per cent) female candidates are contesting in the phase-II Odisha Assembly election.

Dilawar added that the identity of Odisha is under threat from Naveen Patnaik's BJD government. "Naveen Patnaik has mortgaged the entire Odisha into the hands of an officer named Pandian from Tamil Nadu. The people of Odisha will have to save the identity of Odisha. To save Odisha, vote for BJP and vote for Jayant Sarangi in the Sundernagar constituency and Sambit Patra in the Lok Sabha constituency. Dilawar added that the identity of Odisha is under campaigned for Sambit Patra, BJP's Lok Sabha candidate from Puri Lok Sabha constituency.

He said that there is "no leader" in the entire world who has a strong vision like Prime Minister Narendra Modi. "Under the leadership of Prime Minister Modi, India has made tremendous progress in the last 10 years whereas the Naveen Patnaik government has caused a lot of loss to Odisha. The wealth of the state has been mortgaged into the hands of Andhra Pradesh.

Raja warring emphasises Congress' commitment to justice, welfare, and inclusive growth

Chandigarh (JAG MOHAN THAKEN), May 14: Addressing large and enthusiastic gatherings in various villages, Punjab Pradesh Congress Committee (PPCC) chief and a candidate for the Ludhiana Lok Sabha seat, Amarinder Singh Raja Warring outlined the "Five Nyayas" from the Congress manifesto, emphasising the party's commitment to justice, welfare, and inclusive growth.

During his speech, Warring sharply criticised the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) for its failure to deliver on electoral promises made during the last elections. He highlighted the unfulfilled commitments that have left many citizens disillusioned and reiterated Congress's dedication to transparency and accountability in governance. Warring also took a strong stance against the Bhartiya Janata Party (BJP), accusing it of engaging in divisive politics that threaten the unity and harmony of the nation. He called for a return to policies that prioritise the welfare of all citizens, regardless of their background.

"The people of Punjab deserve a government that truly works for their benefit, not one that makes empty promises or divides them," Warring declared. "The Congress party's 'Five Nyayas' are designed to ensure justice and prosperity for every individual in our state. It's time for real change, and together, we can achieve it."

Warring elaborated on the "Five Nyayas" from the Congress manifesto, emphasising social and economic justice. He detailed Kisan Nyay, promising fair prices and support for farmers, and Yuva Nyay, aiming to create sustainable employment for youth. He also focused on Shramik Nyay, ensuring labourers' rights and welfare, and Hissedari Nyay, promoting social justice for marginalised communities. Lastly, he highlighted Naari Nyay, dedicated to empowering women and promoting gender equality.

Confronting his opponents, Raja Warring asked them to spell out what they had to offer to people except the 'jumlas' (fake promises). Addressing a series of public meetings in various assembly segments of the Ludhiana parliamentary constituency Tuesday, Warring said, Congress

AAP leaders had made tall claims before forming the government in Punjab, but have already run away from their promises and commitments and pushed the entire blame on the centre. He said, while the central government indeed is to be blamed, what stopped the AAP from fulfilling its own commitments during the last two and a half years.

The PCC president claimed that the free power scheme was started during the Congress government headed by Charanjit Singh Channi, much before the AAP came to power in Punjab. He pointed out, the Channi government had waived off all the pending arrears of people pending for years. "If the AAP government can take loans for publishing and loan waiver for farmers. Warring asked the BJP, the Aam Aadmi Party and the Shiromani Akali Dal to list one single such commitment to farmers. He observed that, while the farmers did not expect anything from the BJP as its "anti-farmer agenda" was too well known, he asked the Akalis what they had to offer. Similarly, he added, the

'Fateh' Actor Sonu Sood Receives Deepfake Video From Follower; Urges Fans To Be Aware Of Cyber Criminals

Actor Sonu Sood was in for a rude shock when he received a screen recording of a deep fake video call from a follower recently. In the deep fake video call featuring Sood, the impersonator interacted with a family in need of funds for medical treatment, assuring them of financial assistance. The actor-philanthropist took to his social media handle to voice his concerns about cybercrime.

The post read: "My film FATEH is inspired by real life incidents involving Deep Fake and fake loan apps. This is the latest incident where someone tried to extract money from an unsuspecting family, by chatting with them through video call pretending to be Sonu Sood. Many innocent individuals fall into this trap. I request all of you to be vigilant if you receive such calls. #fateh"

Interestingly, inspired from such events, the actor turned writer and director for his new thriller, Fateh. Sood wrote the story after one and a half years of research and interviews with victims, cybercrime police officers, and ethical hackers. He essays the role of a tech-savvy investigation agent who is on a mission to protect the country from cybercrime.

Grammys Reduce Nominees From 10 to 8 In Top 4 Award Categories

Grammys has announced to reduce the number of nominees in four of its award categories - Album, Song, Record of the Year, and Best New Artist - from 10 to 8, Variety reported on Friday. An announcement in this regard was made after the Recording Academy updated its rules and guidelines following its semiannual board of trustees meeting. The number of nominees for those categories was increased from eight to ten in November 2021, just before the nominees for 2022 were announced -- a surprising and perplexing turn of events, given that such changes usually occur after the annual board meetings, Variety reported. While three new award categories were announced earlier this week, the reduction in the number of nominees in four award categories was announced on Friday. An Artificial Intelligence (AI)-related rule was also introduced, effectively stating that only human creators are eligible for awards; however, as with all things AI, the vast possibilities that the technology makes possible in this still-developing area necessitate an extensive series of caveats, Variety further reported. While Recording Academy CEO Harvey Mason Jr. stated at the time that the change was "an incredible opportunity for us to honour more artists and shine a light on more great music, and potentially offer a greater chance for more genres of music to be honoured", some speculated that it was done to ensure Taylor Swift received a best new album nomination for her album 'Evermore' and thus increase the chance that she would appear on the show and boost its rating, as reported by Variety.

Why PM Modi trusts Amit Shah so much

It is sheer chance that Union Home Minister Amit Shah, who is a bridge between the Narendra Modi's government and the Bhartiya Janata Party (BJP) has been living in the same house where BJP patriarch Atal Behari Vajpayee and Harbert Baker, the architect of old Parliament House as well as South and North Block had lived in the past. It is no secret that while working from his official residence, he would be thinking of Atal Behari Vajpayee for an inspiration. It is no secret that from deciding the sale of Air India to the repeal of Article 370 (ending Jammu and Kashmir's special status), appointing Arif Mohammad Khan as the Governor of Kerala it's Amit Shah who is the embodiment of Modi 2.0's Goals. It is most likely that he would be the key player in implementing the promises of his boss in future too.

Arguably Amit Shah has been the closest confidant and chief strategist of Prime Minister Narendra Modi. Modi and Shah work together smoothly. He is among the most trusted person of Prime Minister Modi as he knows how to implement the goals and programmes of his Prime Minister. For some unknown reasons, Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal has started a baseless debate that Amit Shah to replace Narendra Modi in the near future. Home Minister Amit Shah on Saturday returned fire at Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal over the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) chief's swipe that Prime Minister Narendra Modi is setting the ground for Mr Shah to take over as Prime Minister in future. Amit Shah has made it clear that Modi ji would remain Prime Minister in future too.

It's been a decade since Amit Shah entered national politics. Much has been said and written about his personality, temperament, and goals. He has been dubbed the modern-day Chanakya, a tireless worker, and an exceptional organizer. Yet, despite the abundance of commentary, Amit Shah himself remains tight-lipped. He is perhaps the only figure in Indian politics whose actions speak louder than words. Amit Shah may not be flashy, but his actions are unique and impactful.

Before 2014, few in Delhi knew him. When the Lok Sabha election results arrived in May 2014, and the BJP secured 71 out of 80 seats in Uttar Pradesh, people finally realized that a masterful electoral strategist had emerged from Gujarat – his name, Amit Shah. He was the one entrusted with the responsibility of managing Uttar Pradesh during the Lok Sabha elections. His aversion to modern political ostentation became evident in early 2014 when he was the car as a gesture of respect. Amit Shah, once more, politely declined. It wasn't as if he was a newcomer to the BJP before 2014. He had been active in electoral politics since 1997, holding numerous positions, including Home Minister of

made by the RSS and the party proved to be astute. Upon assuming the presidency, he faced elections in four major states: Maharashtra, Jammu and Kashmir, Haryana, and Jharkhand. The BJP emerged victorious in all four states. If Prime Minister stationed in Lucknow. One late evening, while waiting to board a flight from Lucknow to Delhi, he stood alone, briefcase in hand. There was no entourage, no fanfare. Someone recognized him from afar and offered to carry his briefcase as a formality. He politely declined, expressing his gratitude. He then proceeded towards the plane, carrying his own briefcase. Even the airline staff refrained from approaching him with any formalities. Upon landing in Delhi, the same individual again requested to carry his briefcase to Gujarat, before 2014. But he never embraced ostentation then, and he continues to distance himself from it even now. It was likely decided in June 2014, during a meeting of the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS) in Chittorgarh, Rajasthan, which Amit Shah should be given a permanent and significant role in national politics, rather than being sent to Delhi for just one election. This responsibility manifested in the form of the BJP's National President position. The decision

Modi was credited as the primary architect of this success, Amit Shah followed closely behind. Amit Shah entered politics through cooperative elections, and today, as the country's Home Minister, he still operates with the spirit of cooperation. It's no surprise that he has admirers within the BJP. Remarkably, he also has well-wishers within opposition-ruled states, particularly among Chief Ministers of border states or those grappling with Naxalite insurgency. Amit Shah, too, readily acknowledges the good work of his opposition counterparts. He has publicly praised Odisha Chief Minister Naveen Patnaik for curbing Naxalism and Punjab Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann Singh for his adept handling of the Khalistani Amritpal Singh situation. This is not merely a display of magnanimity but also reflects Amit Shah's awareness of his role as a steward of the federal system.

His leadership style naturally involves uniting party workers and keeping them consistently engaged. However, to certain opposition leaders, he appears as a tough and uncompromising politician.

The concept of "ruling" is absent from Amit Shah's vocabulary. His inherent nature is to work. Consequently, tasks that seem insurmountable to others become manageable for him. Who could have predicted that the centuries-old movement for the construction of the Ram Temple would be resolved by any government without a hitch? Who believed that the issue of Triple Talaq, considered taboo in Indian politics, could be boldly addressed by a government and abolished through a bill passed in both houses of Parliament? Was anyone convinced that Article 370 could be revoked from Kashmir? Yet, all of this came to pass. While the Prime Minister's firm resolve deserves recognition, Amit Shah's adept strategy should be equally acknowledged. As the nation's journey is perpetual, so too are the challenges it faces. Special on International Family Day 15 May 2024

The Role of Families in Combating Climate Change

-Lalit Garg-

International Day of Families is celebrated as an annual celebration on 15 May to celebrate the importance of families and their role in society. The United Nations adopted it as a resolution in 1994 to raise awareness of the importance of families, highlight the challenges they face, promote the ideals of solidarity, and demonstrate efforts that strengthen family units around the world. This year we are celebrating the 30th anniversary of the International Day of Families, the theme of which is Families and Climate Change. Its goal is to raise awareness of the effects of climate change on families and encourage them to take action to reduce these impacts. Family and community initiatives aim to raise awareness about the threats to the environment and life from climate change and to clean up the environment by providing education, information access, training and community participation. Family is the smallest unit in the animal world and social organization. It is difficult to even imagine running a human society in the absence of a family, we have understood this very well during the Corona crisis. Every person is able to make his life journey pleasant, prosperous and development oriented only by being a member of some family. Its existence cannot be thought of apart from it. Our culture and civilization has been refining itself by going through many changes, but there has been no impact on the existence of the family institution. They may have been created or broken, but their existence cannot be denied. Its form changed and its values changed but its existence cannot be questioned. No matter how much modern ideology we are growing up in, but in the end we experience satisfaction and fullness and meaning of life only in converting our relations into a family by linking them with the institution of marriage. The importance of family is not only in India but everywhere in the world, that is why International Family Day is celebrated with the aim of strengthening the family institution. The main objective of this day is to make the youth aware of the family so that the youth do not get away from their families in the flow of so-called modernity. The family institution continues to exist despite facing many struggles and changes. If we talk about old eras or even on the basis of religious beliefs, then like today, there used to be disintegration of families earlier too. But in modern society disintegration of the family has become a common thing. In such a situation, International Family Day is celebrated with the mission and vision that families should not break. By living among the family, you remain stress-free and happy, and you also do not become a victim of loneliness or depression. The concept of society is incomplete without family and to create a family it is very important for people to live together and connect. There are two types of families – one is nuclear family and the other is joint family. Father, mother and children live in a nuclear family. In a joint family, father-mother, children, grandparents, uncle, aunt, elder father, elder mother, aunt etc. The first celebration of this day was announced by the United States of America on 15 May 1994. This day holds great importance for the people who are suffering the tragedy of breakdown and disintegration of joint families. In fact, the unique identity of human civilization is the joint family and wherever it is, there is heaven. Old age shudders due to the actions of family members who destroy the importance of relationships and love and the so-called modernist thinking. While the disintegration of joint families and the emergence of the nuclear family has caused pain to the elderly, it has also deprived the children of many events. The power to bear sorrow and endure hardships which is seen in joint families is not found in those who live alone. In today's modern era, in view of rising inflation and increasing needs, joint families can be called the need of the hour.

PM Modi Files Nomination From Varanasi, Then A Massive Show Of Strength

New Delhi, (KCN): Prime Minister Narendra Modi filed his nomination for the 2024 Lok Sabha election from Uttar Pradesh's Varanasi Tuesday morning - after a flashy six km roadshow last evening - accompanied by a phalanx of senior leaders from the Bharatiya Janata Party and its alliance partners, including party boss JP Nadda, Home Minister Amit Shah and Defence Minister Rajnath Singh, as well as Maharashtra Chief Minister Eknath Shinde and his Meghalaya counterpart

Conrad Sangma.

Alliance partners present included Rashtriya Lok Dal chief Jayant Chaudhary and Lok Janshakti Party leader Chirag Paswan, as well as Apna Dal (Sonelal) boss Anupriya Patel and the Suheldev Bharatiya Samaj Party's Om Prakash Rajbhar.

This morning, en route to filing his papers, Mr Modi prayed at the city's iconic Dashashwamedh Ghat, on the banks of the Back in March, while announcing the dates of the seven-phase election, the EC had warned politicians not to cross the "red line" during campaigning. The poll panel told political parties it was putting them "on notice" and said informing their star campaigners of the guidelines was their responsibility.

Kendrapara villages face extinction

Kendrapara(KCN): The absence of a long-term plan to prevent natural calamities is posing serious threats to several villages under Mahakalapada block of Kendrapara district. Locals alleged that every year the administration holds meetings to tackle the situation in the aftermath of natural calamities. However, no concrete steps have ever been taken to prevent impending danger. "The effort is always to act after destruction, but not to prevent it," pointed out a local.

The frequent ingress of seawater into residences located in villages under Satabhaya, Lanjuda, Suniti and Babar panchayats is giving sleepless nights to the inhabitants. They stated that unless preventive measures are implemented quickly the sea will gobble up the villages in these panchayats within the next four to five years. They added that even a slight increase in the speed of wind gives rise to tidal waves at many places of the 48-kilometre-long coastline resulting in rapid soil erosion.

Environmentalists and scientists pointed out that if soil erosion continues in the manner it is happening now, the day is not far when many villages will be swallowed up by the sea. They blamed the district administration for the current state of affairs. "We have been harping on development of mangrove plantations in a planned manner to stop soil erosion, but nothing has been done to combat the situation," they stated. The environmentalists warned that 90 per cent of land under Satabhaya panchayat has disappeared into the sea and other panchayats will face the same fate.

Bhuban Mohan Jena, president of 'Zilla Jana Adhikar Manch', local intellectual Ganesh Chandra Samal, farmer leader Gayadhar Dhal, educationist Khitish Kumar Singh and environmentalist Hemant Kumar Rout pointed out that this district is always prone to natural disasters due to its long coastline and seven major rivers and scores of other water bodies flowing through it. However, instead of turning into a blessing, this factor has turned into a curse for this district. When contacted, ADM Pitambar Samal said the river embankments are being strengthened on downstream to control floods, while mangrove plantations are being created to prevent erosion. He added that results will soon be seen.

Healthcare services hit in Jhariaon as hospital staff sent for poll duty

Jhariaon(KCN): Healthcare services at the community centre and all the primary health centres at Jhariaon in Nabarangpur district have been badly hit as more than 30 per cent of the staff working in these places have been entrusted with election duties.

Polls to the Nabarangpur Lok Sabha constituency and the seven Assembly segments including Jhariaon were held Monday.

Sources informed that due to the lack of qualified staff, patients at the community health centre

(CHC) and the five primary health centres, are suffering. Officials informed that it will take 4-5 days for restoration of normalcy.

The matter came to the fore when 18 persons suffered injuries, some of them seriously, in an accident on the Jhariaon-Chandahandi road when an autorickshaw collided with a car, Sunday. All of them were rushed to the CHC here, but treatment got delayed due to the absence of doctors and other qualified staff in the Emergency department. The situation sparked tension among the relatives of the victims and the locals who had brought them to the CHC. Hospital authorities expressed helplessness as they pointed out that staff had been asked to attend poll duties.

There are five primary health centres (PHC) and one CHC in this block. A total of 105 people, including doctors and pharmacists, are employed in these six centres.

Officials informed Monday that eight employees have been sent on deputation to other hospitals. They added that out of the remaining 97 employees, 31 have been entrusted with election duties. Officials pointed out that all the seven pharmacists in the CHC and PHCs have been pulled out for poll duties. Others who have been put on the election roster include 15 multi-purpose health workers (male), one senior helper, three attendants, three sweepers and two laboratory technicians. Such is the situation that at times nurses are providing emergency healthcare services to patients. Doctors after checking patients are distributing medicines themselves due to the shortage of staff. Even medical officers working at the CHC and PHCs are doing elementary jobs that have nothing to do with the treatment. They informed that the situation will turn normal once those who have been sent on election duty return.

253 Olive Ridley hatchlings released at Dagara beach

Baliapal(KCN): Forest department staff released Monday hatchlings of 253 Olive Ridley turtles into the sea at Dagara under Baliapal block in Balasore district.

It should be stated here that the stretch of the sea beach from Chaumukh to Haskara has turned into a favourite and mass nesting place for

Olive Ridley turtles. Officials said that every year hundreds of turtles arrive at the beach to lay eggs and then return to the sea. The hatchlings are usually born two-three months later. This year also was no exception. After the hatchlings emerged on the surface, the Forest Department officials facilitated their passage into the sea. Officials informed that this year, the number of adult turtles visiting the beach had decreased substantially. Only 400 eggs were laid by the turtles, of which 253 hatchlings were born, they added. It was indeed pleasing to the eye to see employees of the Forest department, namely Hrushikesh Pradhan, Durjaya Karan, Manmath Dalai and Amulya Jena escorting the baby turtles safely back into the sea. Who knows some of these hatchlings may visit the same beach again when they become adults to lay eggs and continue the natural process.

Real Madrid have already secured the league title, sitting on 90 points with three games left.

"There is still a long way to go. It will be a battle to the end. Girona are very strong," Barcelona defender Iñigo Martínez told Movistar.

"It's in our hands now. I think the team is very good. Three valuable points. We had some mistakes in the first half. In the second half I think we could have finished it off earlier."

Yamal put Barcelona

ahead in the 40th minute when he coolly slotted home from Ilkay Gundogan's pass after a quick breakaway for his fifth LaLiga goal this season. "It was an important game to regain second place and we have to try to make it a nine-point week," the 16-year-old Yamal said referring to the upcoming games.

"Real did very well in the first half but then we were able to improve. There was good feeling in the whole team." Raphinha's penalty in stoppage time sealed victory for the hosts after a VAR review for handball, leaving the Basque side in seventh place with 54 points, one behind Real Betis in the last Europa League spot. "Real always make it difficult for us. They are always very organised, aggressive, you don't create danger for them," Xavi told reporters. "It's an important victory for us. We played a good game in general."

New York: The schedule for the T20 World Cup in the US and the Caribbean seems a little odd owing to the potential for a tight turnaround between the semifinals and the final. With the two semifinals slated for June 26 and 27, and the final set for June 29, it can potentially be a close call, with one team having to play semifinal and final on consecutive days.

It could be well argued that such a scenario is a long shot given that June is a month of summer in the Caribbean but the fact is that the International Cricket Council (ICC) and the Cricket West Indies (CWI) have scheduled reserve days. There may, well, be a little abnormal scenario. Should the second semifinal spill over to the next day (June 28), the winners of the contest will have to play the final in less than 24 hours. Additionally, they will have to travel from Providence in Guyana to Bridgetown in Barbados in that period. More pertinently, the affected team could be India if they go on to reach the title clash.

As per the schedule, India are to play their semifinal on June 27 at 8.30 pm IST (if they qualify). A CWI official said the ICC are also in control of the playing regulations for the tournament and the West Indies board cannot comment. Cricbuzz reached out to the ICC for a reaction. Through a March 15 media release, it did, though, confirm the reserve days for the last three games of the 55-match tournament.

"It was also confirmed during the meetings that ICC Men's T20 World Cup 2024 would have reserve days scheduled for the semi-finals and final," the ICC said through a media release after a board meeting. Should such a scenario emerge, the ICC may have to move the final to its reserve days, June 30. But it has not stated this in as many words as yet. The World Cup kicks off on June 1.

It is an unprecedented situation as there were sufficient gaps between the reserve day of the second semifinal and the final in the previous global events. In the last year's World Cup in India, the second semifinal between South Africa and Australia was played on November 14. Never before in recent years was the semifinal and the final so closely scheduled.

Klusener plays down Rahul-Goenka animated chat, refutes captaincy rumours

New Delhi: Lucknow Super Giants assistant coach Lance Klusener has downplayed the 'incident' involving KL Rahul and owner Sanjeev Goenka, and quashed subsequent speculations about a possible captaincy change in the set-up. "No, certainly no discussions around that [captaincy change]," Klusener said on Monday, ahead of LSG's must-win game against Delhi Capitals. LSG could muster only a sub-par 165 against Sunrisers Hyderabad in a high-scoring venue like Hyderabad, which the home team's in-form openers then chased down in just 9.4 overs. The massive 10-wicket thrashing severely dented LSG's net run-rate and playoffs qualification hopes, following which Goenka was captured on TV having an animated discussion with Rahul. Klusener, however, referred to the incident as a 'storm in a teacup'. "I don't see any problem with some robust discussion between two cricket lovers. I don't see any problem with that. For us, I guess, it's just a storm in a teacup. We love a robust discussion, I think that's how teams get better. So, it's not a big thing for us," the South African said.

While Rahul has had a stellar few seasons with the bat, aggregating in excess of 1000 runs since IPL 2022, his strike-rate has been a point of contention. In IPL 2024, Rahul is LSG's leading run-getter with a tally of 460 and an average of 38.33 but he has been slow to get going in a few games. Fellow opener Quinton de Kock's poor run hasn't helped either. Klusener, however, defended his captain stating that Rahul has often had to assume the responsibility of resurrecting the innings, courtesy an under-performing batting order around him, rather than scoring freely like others in the competition. "I think everybody's got their own style. KL's got his own unique style, which has made him a fantastic player not just here in India but around the world. I think this IPL has been exceptionally tough for him because we've kept losing wickets at poor stages, which hasn't allowed him to kick on where he liked. He probably feels like he's always having to rebuild. So I think as a batting unit around KL we haven't been as good as we should. So I think it's just been extremely tough conditions for him in that and not just coming into a platform. So by KL's high standards he probably would have liked to have kicked on in a few more games and probably would have liked to have at least one or two hundreds that haven't worked out for him. But, there's still a couple of games and he's still in a good space. So we've got our fingers crossed for him."

LSG face an uphill task in order to finish in the top-four, with only 12 points from as many games. Not only do they have to win both their remaining games, against DC and Mumbai Indians, by significant margins to up their NRR, which is currently -0.769, they also have to hope for other teams to do them a favour. Klusener chose to look at the controllables ahead of the do-or-die clash in Delhi. "We've got two games to go. It doesn't really matter what's happened in the past, whether we've won or lost, it makes no difference to us. We're focusing on the next two games. And how best we can get over the line in both of them. Whether we then qualify or not, I guess, that's of our making from the way we played. But, our focus really is just to get over the line tomorrow and then we'll worry about Mumbai after that," the 52-year-old said.

"It's something we've chatted about as well is that we've just kept losing wickets at tough times and batters coming in

seem to have to be
