

Nick Jonas gushes over Priyanka Chopra's smile

LOS ANGELES (KCN): They may have not made their relationship official, but Nick Jonas is surely in love with Priyanka Chopra's "smile".

Priyanka posted a photo of herself and two friends enjoying burgers at In-n-Out and Nick not only liked the picture but also commented on it.

"Burgers and Chanel...my favourite combo with my fav girls," the Indian actor captioned the photo.

"That smile," the pop star commented along with a heart emoji.

The 35-year-old "Quantico" star also commented on one of Nick's pictures with heart and fire emoji.

According to E! News, the duo has been spending a lot of time together lately and were seen enjoying multiple dates over Memorial Day weekend.

"They are dating and it's brand new. It's a good match and they are both interested in each other,"

a source told Us Weekly of the budding relationship.

Priyanka and Nick were also spotted on a dinner date at Toca Madera in West Hollywood, where they cosied up on the garden patio and munched on guacamole, the Ceviche Verde, chicken tacos and the Japanese Wagyu Beef. The two, who posed for photos on the red carpet together in Ralph Lauren designs at the 2017 Met Gala, are yet to comment on dating rumours.

Blac Chyna tries to jack Rob Kardashian's car

The custody hearing is full steam ahead for next month and Blac plans to raise allegations that Rob committed domestic violence.

Rob Kardashian and Blac Chyna who are engaged in custody war visited the Century City law offices of Laura Wasser, who represents Rob.

According to TMZ.com, they spent hours inside but, nothing has been resolved. Rob had someone call ahead to have his car pulled up to the valet stand, but he wanted to wait until Blac left.

The witnesses claim that a visibly agitated Blac came along, saw the Range Rover, got inside and prepared to hightail it away from the building. One of Blac's lawyers told her, "That's not a good idea." And with the help of a valet, they got Blac out of Rob's whip. The custody hearing is full steam ahead for next month and Blac plans to raise allegations that Rob committed domestic violence.

Watch: Varun doesn't let you miss Salman's histrionics in hilarious Judwaa 2 trailer

Mumbai(KCN): Varun dhawan is yet to deliver a flop and a lot of it has to do with the actor's immense charisma and potential.

And now, the young star is teaming up with his father again, on the highly anticipated sequel to the latter's iconic 90's cult film, 'Judwaa'.

And the first trailer, as expected, has sent expectations soaring.

Varun is at his goofy, nerdy, exuberant best as the diametrically different twins.

The hilarious trailer ensures a lot of humour, action and romance, as is expected from a potboiler as this.

Varun's leading ladies, Taapsee Pannu and Jacqueline Fernandez are both in their elements themselves.

The makers have also utilised iconic tracks from the prequel's soundtrack composed by Anu Mallik.

Varun, who was last seen in 'Badrinath Ki Dulhania,' can be seen in different looks as well, with one of them sporting long hair.

'Judwaa 2' is slated for a September 29 release.

Pehredaar Piya Ki and TV content

Sony TV's latest offering, Pehredaar Piya Ki is barely a month old and has been marred in controversy from the word go. The show that depicts a 10-year-old boy married to an 18-year-old woman, who doubles up as his 'protector,' has been protested against with petitions. While the producers are standing by their stance of this not being a 'regressive' show, the protests seem to have worked — to some degree, that is. The Broadcasting Content Complaints Council (BCCC) has directed the channel there. For instance, I don't think Bigg Boss offers any great content either, but it is on the television screens of people at 9 pm, which is a prime-time slot. But even if it is on the screens, it doesn't mean that children should be exposed to it. At the end of the day, people have the remote control in their hands and they are not gullible fools. Whether it is 8 pm, 9 pm or 10 pm, they will watch what they like. Children these days, don't sleep at 10 pm.

I don't think con-to move the show from prime time to 10 pm.

Frankly speaking, I do not believe in curbing anyone's freedom to see whatever they want to — I am against censorship of such kind. So whether the content is bad or good, it is still out tent can be judged — it is very subjective. After all, we have all kind of content on the Internet. Having said that, shifting the time slot for the show is a decent move since young kids don't watch the television at that time.
